Refusal to Allow Reductions In Reparations Stirs British

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—The federal list landed on recalcitrant Saxony today.

Chancellor Stresmann ordered the Saxon cabinet deposed for alleged insubordination and refusal to comply with his order to construct a new cabinet purged of communist representatives.

The chancellor in Dresden informed the United Press by telephone today the cabinet would continue opposition to the central government's order of dissolution.

Reichs Commissioner Heinze, former minister of justice, was finally appointed commissar for Saxony today after President Ebert changed from his original intention to appoint Herr Schultze. Heinze sent word to the Zeigler cabinet that it was deposed and instructed General Mueller, military dictator of Saxony, to prohibit the session of the diet until a new cabinet had been formed.

Soldiers later entered the diet building and arrested several communists, who had gathered there for a conference.

Communists and extreme Socialists in Saxony called for a general strike in protest against the federal government's action but no decision has been reached late today.

Stresmann was said to be confident the federal government's forces, strongly reinforced under General Mueller, would be powerful enough to bring Saxony swiftly to obedience.

POINCARÉ PICTURES

GERMANY AS HYPOCRITE.

PARIS, Oct. 29.—Premier Poincaré has drawn the eye teeth of the proposed advisory conference of experts to determine Germany's capacity to pay reparations, in the opinion of well informed quarters here today.

His speech at Sampigny and subsequent official communications, it was said here today, have headed off what was believed to be an attempt to reduce the total of the German reparations debt and a proposal to get France and Belgium out of the Ruhr.

"France will never consent to discuss again the total fixed in May 1921," a communiqué said, "and will never reduce the amount fixed by the reparations commission."

In his speech at Sampigny the premier declared France would remain in the Ruhr until totally paid.

He pictured Germany as a hypocrite seeking to dodge her debts while illegally and secretly forming a huge army, air fleet and ammunition factories for a war of imperialistic revenge.

Pinchot Charges Government Is To Blame for Penn. Booze Orgy

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 29.—The breach between Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon and Governor Gifford Pinchot was widened today over enforcement of prohibition in Pennsylvania.

A reply was looked for from Secretary Mellon to the letter addressed to him by Governor Pinchot in which it was asserted "the people of your state and mine are being affronted by open defiance of the law."

The governor disclosed in his letter that he was not satisfied with Secretary Mellon's statement explaining the difficulties of federal enforcement and defending the system of issuing federal permits.

CANADIANS SWEEP TO VICTORY OVER YANKEE SAILORS

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 29.—The Nova Scotia schooner Blue Nose today won the first of the races for the international fisherman's trophy, defeating the Yankee contender Columbia.

The Canadian led the American cup contender by thirty seconds over the starting line at 9 a. m. and was never headed.

The Blue Nose, Skipper Angus Walters at the helm, crossed the line at 9:01 and stood away on the first leg of the 34 mile triangular course, a six mile run straight out from Halifax harbor.

Half a minute later the Gloucesterman slipped past the starting mark and set out in chase of the Canadian.

Both vessels carried full sail and were swept along at a good clip by a fair southwest wind.

The fisherman's trophy is at present held by the Blue Nose, which won it in the races of Gloucester last year.

Just before the race the Nova Scotians were asking supporters of the Columbia to give them odds. This was considered a strange attitude for the backers of the holder of the championship, but they seemed to think that America was due to win, having lost in the last two regattas.

At 9:35:36 the Blue Nose rounded the buoy. The Columbia was one minute and 10 seconds behind.

The Blue Nose swept past the second buoy at 10:06:43, leading the Columbia by three minutes. The rising sea seemed exactly to the liking of the cup defender, as it continued to gain steadily on the Yankee challenger as the schooners swung into the third leg.

The Blue Nose continued increasing its lead in a choppy sea until the third mark, where the superior handling by Skipper Ben Pine of the Columbia, out of Gloucester, cut down the Canadian's lead of half a mile and put the challenger seven seconds ahead. Then followed the 17 mile run straight for home, with the two speedy fishing schooners almost bow to bow at the start of the final leg.

One more victory for the Blue Nose will give Nova Scotia possession of the trophy for another year.

JAP PREMIER THANKS U. S. FOR HELP

Declares Great Disaster Accomplished End Long Sought by Diplomats

(By United Press Leased Wire) TOKYO, Oct. 29.—The Japanese earthquake effected understandings with America which the ablest men of both countries had previously attempted to obtain by diplomatic means, Admiral Count Gombel Yamamoto, prime minister of Japan, today told Karl A. Bickel, president of the United Press, in his first interview since becoming premier.

He gave a complete outline of his government's ideas on reconstruction of the devastated area, thus announcing to the world, through the United Press, his restoration plans.

Yamamoto declared that Japan intends to rely principally upon her own resources for rebuilding. This is the first time this intention has been officially expressed.

Use Own Resources
"The government intends primarily to draw upon our own economic resources for reconstruction of the stricken districts, but the government is conscious of the fact that consummation of the reconstruction plans depends to some extent upon the sympathetic assistance of friendly countries," Premier Yamamoto said.

"The Japanese people are determined to engage in reconstruction in a dauntless spirit, to adopt methods based on the most modern scientific knowledge, as well as the valuable experience gained from the catastrophe."

"In behalf of the government and people of Japan, I wish to express wholehearted thanks for the sincere work done by and sympathy exhibited by the United States."

Cements Friendship
"I deem this ungrudging help as a manifestation of the friendliness of the American people. I have not the slightest doubt it has produced an indelible impression on the minds of the Japanese and strengthened more than ever the long existing amity and concord between the American and Japanese peoples."

"Our people succeeded in maintaining our tranquility during and after the calamity. We are thus enabled to repay partially the sympathy and assistance of foreign powers by accomplishing the relief of the sufferers in a comparatively short time."

"Our authorities now are zealously undertaking the task of reconstruction and the government will soon publish a concrete, comprehensive plan."

Thanks U. S. Envoy
"Fortunately the destruction was confined to one district and therefore the disastrous effects to our national power are not so appalling."

"I desire to avail myself of this opportunity to pay tribute to Mr. Woods, the American ambassador, who, with his devoted staff, played a splendid part which endeared him personally to the hearts of our people high and low. His great benevolence and self-sacrificing endeavors in alleviating the sufferings of our afflicted peoples will forever live in our memory."

CRIPPLE GOES ON TRIAL IN DEATH CASE

(By United Press Leased Wire) MARSHFIELD, Ore., Oct. 29.—Thrice postponed, the trial of Arthur Covell, invalid astrologer, charged with plotting the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ebba Covell, was scheduled to start in the Coquille circuit court today.

Prospective jurors have been summoned to appear and it is not probable the trial will be again postponed, court officials believed.

Selection of the jury will perhaps take up an unusual length of time, due to the great interest and widespread publicity given the case throughout the county.

Covell's plea, according to his attorney, will be insanity. Having already detailed the murder which his nephew, Alton Covell, consummated, the bedridden astrologer will hold that the fractured spine which he suffered two years ago in an automobile accident turned him from a kindly farmer-scientist to a plotter of more than a score of murders.

Lucille Covell, the astrologer's niece, and sister of Alton Covell, will perhaps be the state's chief witness, she having been present when her uncle and brother planned Mrs. Covell's death.

WALTON CONFIDENT OF HOLDING OFFICE

(By United Press Leased Wire) OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 29.—Both sides in the impeachment proceedings against Governor J. C. Walton today prepared for the final test, which will come at the open hearing in the senate at 10 a. m. Thursday. The governor will defend himself against charges brought by the house of representatives.

Walton supporters still claimed to be confident that a two thirds vote of the senate for removal of the governor could not be obtained by opponents of the executive.

GIVES FUNDS TO G. O. P., DEMOCRATS

Holder of Teapot Dome Oil Lease Witness Before Senate Body

(By United Press Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Harry F. Sinclair, oil magnate and lessee of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve, contributed to both the Republican and Democrat funds in 1920, he testified before the senate committee investigating the Teapot Dome today. He explained he did so because he had friends in both parties.

Sinclair, who obtained the lease from former Secretary of the Interior Fall in 1922 under conditions which prompted progressive senators to call for the present probe, appeared before the committee to explain his part in the deal.

Gave to G. O. P.
In the course of his examination by Senator Walsh, Montana, spokesman on the committee for the critics of the lease, Walsh brought out the admission from Sinclair that he had contributed to the Republican fund.

Senator Lenroot, Wisconsin, one of the administration senators on the committee, took the questioning in hand and obtained the admission from Sinclair that he had likewise donated a sum of money to the Democratic campaign coffers in 1920.

He declared he didn't remember the exact amounts of his contributions.

Sinclair admitted, in response to Senator Walsh's questioning that former Secretary Fall had been a great personal friend over a long period of years. He had often entertained him in his private car, he said, and on one of these occasions, the Teapot Dome lease was signed at Three Rivers, New Mexico. Sinclair declared he had entertained other cabinet officers in his car.

Independent Venture.
Concerning the terms of the Teapot lease, Sinclair admitted that the operation of the pipe line from Casper, Wyo., to Kansas City, Mo., contemplated by the lease, was entirely independent of the development of the Teapot Dome reserve because it would be a common carrier and available to all producers in the neighboring Salt Creek field.

Administration senators have contended construction of the pipe line was a concession by Sinclair to the government.

SON OF S. F. MAYOR AUTO CRASH VICTIM

(By United Press Leased Wire) SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Physicians today held a consultation at the bedside of James Rolph, III, son of Mayor James Rolph, Jr., of San Francisco and later announced they had hope that his "rugged youth" would bring about his recovery.

Rolph was injured yesterday in an automobile wreck near Oakland. The physicians said that Rolph was still unconscious due to a "severe head injury," but that they found no indications of pressure on the brain. His chest also was crushed.

Miss Jane Richey of Merced who was riding with Rolph at the time of the accident, escaped only slightly injured.

Miss Richey and Rolph were returning from Miss Richey's home in Merced where they had been visiting Miss Richey's parents.

TEXAS SHERIFF GETS 2 PRISONERS

When He Comes to L.A. for 1

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—Sheriff T. A. Binford, of Houston, Texas, came to Los Angeles to get one prisoner, but he will return with two.

The pair are W. M. Ward, wanted in Houston for the alleged forgery of warehouse cotton receipts for $100,000, and Mike Matrange, a Greek sought as an alleged kidnaper of a 15-year-old Houston girl.

After Ward had been arrested Sheriff Binford and two local officers went to a "ham and egg" restaurant. Sheriff Binford took a look at the man sitting on the next stool, and recognized Matrange. The three officers shadowed him to his rooming house, where they arrested him and placed a charge of kidnapping against him.

Ward stoutly denied his identity to Sheriff Binford, even after he was locked up behind the bars. Deputy Sheriff Oliver of Los Angeles happened to come through the corridor and stopped in surprise.

"Hello, Ward," he said, "what are you doing here?"

It developed that Oliver had had officers across the hall from Ward in a Houston building several years ago.

TEACHERS ARE TOLD TO USE BRAIN TESTS

(Special to The Register)

ORANGE, Oct. 29.—"Make the man fit the job," said Dr. Thomas Newlin of the Fullerton union high school and junior college this morning when he addressed the approximately 300 Orange county school teachers in annual institute assembly in the auditorium of the Orange union high school.

Dr. Newlin's talk, the chief one of the morning, was on "The Proper Use of Intelligence Tests."

This afternoon the pedagogues were listening to an address by Clyde E. Crawford, superintendent of schools of Kealahou, Kona, Territory of Hawaii. Dr. Carl S. Patton, president of the First Congregational church of Los Angeles, was to follow the Hawaiian educator.

Before Dr. Newlin's talk Percy Richards played the Orange high pipe organ while the teachers arose and sang "America." The Rev. M. L. Pearson, pastor of an Orange church, offered the invocation. There were two pleasing part songs by a group of Orange intermediate students and a young violinist played a southern melody.

Tests Held Not Cure All
"The intelligence tests are not a panacea for all our education ills," Dr. Newlin went on to say. "They are not a cure-all. Nobody knows just what knowledge or intelligence exactly is. We can discuss them but none can tell exactly what they are."

"America has taken the lead in the hearing room as the session began. His presence gave rise to the belief that Major General O'Ryan, counsel for the committee, might call him to the stand today to defend himself from the sensational charges made against him last week, although, according to the committee's original schedule, Forbes was not to testify until Wednesday.

Colonel Forbes was present in the hearing room as the session began. His presence gave rise to the belief that Major General O'Ryan, counsel for the committee, might call him to the stand today to defend himself from the sensational charges made against him last week, although, according to the committee's original schedule, Forbes was not to testify until Wednesday.

A great deal of dissatisfaction was expressed in veterans' circles in California concerning the manner in which veterans' bureau officials proceeded in this deal. Veterans' organizations, following a local investigation, issued a report from which General O'Ryan read into the record of this hearing the charge that the whole affair has been "shady."

DECLARES RECORDS TAKEN FROM FILES

Real Estate Transactions By Forbes Due For Early Airing

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Colonel Charles Forbes, former head of the veterans' bureau, proposed to remove drugs and narcotics from the Perryville, Md., hospital, in empty milk cans, it was charged by James N. Williams, Philadelphia, testifying before the senate committee investigating the veterans' bureau today. "I might make it interesting for you," the witness testified Forbes told him.

(By United Press Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—"Dis-honesty, bad judgment and carelessness were widespread in the rating of compensation due disabled veterans by district offices and the central offices of the veterans' bureau," Dr. R. F. Souther charged today before the senate committee investigating the bureau.

Dr. Souther, a member of the special committee, appointed by General Hines, present director of the bureau, to correct abuses, told the senate committee ratings had worked great injury both to the veterans and to the government.

Souther said rating boards had been swayed by various kinds of pressure. He mentioned personal interviews by congressmen and senators which had caused undeserved rates of compensation to be paid veterans who could enlist, such support.

Files Tamped With
The witness centered his criticism on the ratings of the Washington district, but said that the Minneapolis and Atlanta districts had also been susceptible to inquiry by interested persons.

Souther said many cases had been removed from the files in the central office in order that the board might make the rating it wished without a contrary opinion remaining on record.

"Cases used to come through marked 'congressional' with a yellow tag attached," Souther said. "These cases were given special attention. If one doctor refused to recommend the compensation desired, it was sent to other doctors in the bureau until one would approve it."

The witness said this "yellow card" system has been abolished by General Hines, present director.

In Executive Session
The hearing was delayed today by a long executive session of the committee, which was followed by a protracted conference between Colonel James Eashy-Smith, counsel for Colonel Forbes, and the committee. It was understood that Eashy-Smith requested the right to cross examine witnesses, who made statements attacking moral or official integrity of his client. The committee reserved decision.

Testimony regarding real estate deals in connection with the purchase of hospital sites was scheduled to come before the committee late today.

Colonel Forbes was present in the hearing room as the session began. His presence gave rise to the belief that Major General O'Ryan, counsel for the committee, might call him to the stand today to defend himself from the sensational charges made against him last week, although, according to the committee's original schedule, Forbes was not to testify until Wednesday.

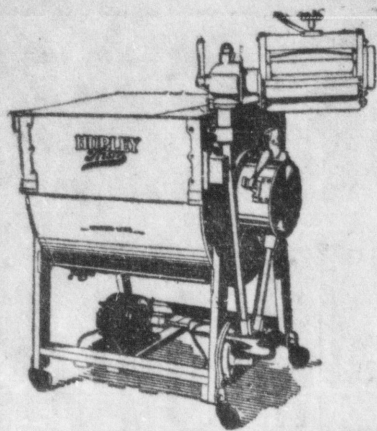

Matt O'Brien, San Francisco architect, who General Hines, present director of the bureau, testified last week, received $64,000 for plans for the hospital at Livermore, Calif., which were never used, was here today and was expected to testify.

A great deal of dissatisfaction was expressed in veterans' circles in California concerning the manner in which veterans' bureau officials proceeded in this deal. Veterans' organizations, following a local investigation, issued a report from which General O'Ryan read into the record of this hearing the charge that the whole affair has been "shady."

Says Wife's Asserted Misgivings Held Too Flagrant for Patience

Clarence L. Royer of Orange to day had set himself forth as a lenient husband.

When his wife, he alleged, created scandals by asserted affairs with other men, Royer merely forgave her and moved with her to another town, he set forth in his complaint for divorce, now on file in the superior court here.

But his patience, he indicated, was finally exhausted when his wife, he alleged, used a public building as a trysting place with other men.

The couple, who were married in Volsey, S. D., November 10, 1909, separated October 1 of this year in Orange. They have one child, a boy, aged 7.

Attorney L. F. Coburn of Orange filed the divorce complaint on behalf of Royer.

PRESENT LOCAL AD CLUB WITH CHARTERS

Membership in the Pacific Coast Association of Advertising Clubs and Associated Advertising Clubs of the World was officially conferred today on the Santa Ana Ad club when charters of these organizations were presented by Arthur Morris, vice president of the Pacific Coast Association of Advertising Clubs.

Approximately sixty-five guests attended the presentation at a luncheon in the dining room of the St. Ann's Inn. The entertainment was in charge of members of the San Diego Ad club. Delegations from Los Angeles and Long Beach were present at the presentation.

W. D. Rudd, president of the Santa Ana club, received both charters. The presentation for the membership charters in the Pacific coast and world organizations marks the successful attempt to organize a club in Santa Ana to maintain high standards of advertising. Rudd pointed out. This club was formed in May with six active members. At present there are fifty members.

SAILOR IN BALBOA HEROISM IS CITED

Because he plunged into the ocean at Balboa August 9, last, and rescued from drowning Robert Howard of San Bernardino, Le Roy Squires, a second-class gunner's mate of the naval reserve, has been cited for bravery by the United States navy department, it was learned here today. The citation was made by Assistant Secretary Roosevelt.

Howard was being swept to sea by rip tides and a heavy surf. Squires, fully clothed, swam to Howard's rescue and assisted by his wife, rendered first-aid treatment and revived him. Squires lives at San Bernardino.

S. A. Knights Templar Team In Good Showing

Local Knights Templar and kindred members of the Masonic fraternity today were recalling with considerable pride the excellent showing made by the Santa Ana team at a Knight Templar field day held Saturday at Covina.

Nine teams of approximately twenty-four men and three captains each, entered the spirited contest for a trophy. The athletic field of the Masonic orphan's home at Covina was the scene of the events.

B. Uttley of this city was one of three judges. The trio of judges awarded the coveted trophy to Long Beach.

Santa Ana's team was composed of eighteen men and was captained by A. E. Koepsel. It drew many complimentary remarks.

Getting Too Fat? Try This—Reduce

People who do not grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, you will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your druggist for Marmola Prescription Tablets and follow directions. One dollar is the price the world over. Get them from your own druggist or send price direct to Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. FRENCH STAND FAIR TO DISTURB AMERICA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The American government is not disturbed over the week-end declarations of Premier Poincare of France and believes that the advisory conference of experts on reparations proposed by Secretary of State Hughes will be held, it was declared by a high authority of the administration today.

Poincare's statements that the expert commission to determine Germany's capacity to pay cannot reduce the present amount of reparations are regarded here as designed entirely for home consumption.

Secretary Hughes never pretended that the conference itself could reduce reparations, it was pointed out, and there is no thought here that this would be a function of the conference itself.

FIVE KILLED IN DRIVE AGAINST SEPARATISTS

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—Five persons were killed and scores injured in clashes between Separatists and German citizens loyal to the reich in Bauschheim, a dispatch from Mayence said today.

The fighting occurred when detachments of Separatists from Russelsheim attempted to confiscate livestock from the villagers.

Employees of the stockyards repelled the first Separatist attack, but the plunderers returned later with reinforcements and burned buildings and crops on three estates.

The wounded were transported to hospitals in Mayence.

this movement. We know how to measure the intelligence of the genius as well as that of the subnormal. These tests have demonstrated their usefulness. Standardized tests should be demanded in the schools as they are in the shops.

"But you Orange county teachers must remember that you are dealing with students with intelligence far beyond normal. Orange county students are not just the average students.

"We should come to know the fitness for work by determining and knowing the mental level." Dr. Newlin said that students should not be informed of the result of the intelligence tests lest they become "swelled in the head."

Cites Girl's Case
He cited the case of a Fullerton girl, who was several years younger than her sister in actual age, but, according to the intelligence test, several years her senior.

"That girl was nearly spoiled," the Fullerton professor declared. "She hasn't gotten over it yet."

"We should give every man, woman and child a job to fit his intelligence. So far, very little along this line has been done in the schools. There ought to be some authority in our schools to tell the child what he can do.

Following the address of Dr. Newlin, County Superintendent R. P. Mitchell, who presided, spoke on "The Liability of School Trustees," the subject which had been assigned to District Attorney A. P. Nelson, who could not speak because of the convening of the county grand jury. Mitchell said that no longer are the individual trustees personally liable for accidents that may occur on school playgrounds but the district attorney is sued and judgment recovered.

F. A. Henderson, principal of the Orange union high school, spoke rather humorously on "Changes in the Law Affecting the Certification of Teachers," in which he pointed out several advances made by the last legislature in keeping with "the economy program."

W. C. Roberts, supervisor of attendance for Orange county also spoke. The "short circuit" between the governor's office and that of the state superintendent of instruction was mentioned by Charles C. Smith, elementary superintendent of Anaheim who pointed out the procedure in the employment and discharge of teachers.

Mitchell ended the morning session with his discussion of the payment of contributions to the teachers' permanent fund. This year the teachers must pay two installments of $6 each, in comparison to the $9 of last year, as was pointed out by Ellen MacKenzie Dodson of Garden Grove, who questioned Mr. Mitchell.

This evening the Schoolmasters' club of Orange county will banquet at Fullerton, it was announced. There will be no evening session of the institute.

Moonshine Is Fatal To Jail's Pet Cat

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Mary Jane, 14, gave her nine cat lives to the bootlegger today.

Youthful Driver Falls Prey to Woman Traffic Cop of Orange County

In keeping a hurry-up date at the Santa Ana-Whittier football game last Saturday, Willard Young, 19, of Whittier, met Orange county's only woman traffic cop and made another date—with Justice J. B. Cox of this city, it was revealed here today.

Mrs. Frances Nelson, wife of District Attorney A. P. Nelson, arrested Young, after a two-mile chase between Anaheim and Santa Ana, claiming that he was driving at a rate of fifty-five miles per hour and had "cut in" on several machines. In her official capacity as deputy sheriff, Mrs. Nelson, who was accompanied by the district attorney, cited Young to appear before Justice Cox next Wednesday, at 10 a. m., on a charge of reckless driving.

Fraudulent Check Case Facing Beach Resident

A charge of issuing a fraudulent check was on file with the authorities here today against A. E. Michael, supposed to reside in the vicinity of Huntington Beach. According to a complaint sworn to by L. Y. McFarland of West Riverside, Michael issued a worthless check for $30.45 to C. A. Winters of Westmoreland, Imperial county, August 25. The check was drawn on a bank at Huntington Beach, it was alleged.

Couple Slightly Hurt In Intersection Crash

Mr. and Mrs. John Forster of San Juan Capistrano were nursing slight cuts and bruises at their home today, following an intersection accident at Orange early last night in which the car in which they were riding collided with one in which were Mr. and Mrs. Parke S. Roper of this city. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Roper was injured. Mr. and Mrs. Forster were given first-aid treatment at the Community hospital here, and in a half hour were able to proceed to their homes.

Death Notices

A Word of Comfort

Separation for a time from intimate touch with our dearest ones means grief and sorrow to us who are left behind, but "death" is sweet to those who go,
for they are with Him;
they see and understand as we can not, and they know that we shall join them there. We must fit ourselves to be with them in God's good time, by living courageously and true to the right as we see it here and now.

of a Catholic rectory at Newport

the contractors is being taxed in putting in the cellar in the shifting sands of the ocean front. The cement has to be poured while the tide is out.

wounds and bruises were the extent of his injuries, according to information reaching here this morning. With D. Z. Smith, local au-in which they were riding skidded and plunged into the side rails of a

WELDING FIRM HERE HAS BUILDING PLANS

Before F. G. Crawford left here today for his home at Fairbault, Minn., he revealed the plans of the Crawford family for enlarging the Santa Ana Welding and Springs company, 101 North Sycamore street.

With his brother, W. T. Crawford, they will dispose of their business in the East, which is the same as that here, and with their families will come to Santa Ana to reside. The company here then will consist of the four Crawford brothers, F. G., W. T., G. A., and Richard, the latter a graduate this year from the University of California. The father, W. W. Crawford, will retire from business he launched here five years ago.

Within the coming year the company plans to build a business structure upon the present plant site at an estimated cost of $40,000, it was disclosed.

W. W. Crawford claims the credit of bringing ten persons to reside here from his old home state.

LOCAL PASTOR WILL CONTINUE IN PULPIT

The Rev. Moffett Rhodes was returned to Santa Ana as pastor of Spurgeon Memorial church, it was revealed here today with an announcement of appointments made at the annual Pacific conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, closing last night in Los Angeles.

The only change in pastors in Orange county, according to the published list, was assignment to the Greenville circuit of the Rev. G. M. Gardner. The Greenville, Bolsa and Talbert churches are in this circuit, which has been served by the Rev. G. T. Bochman. Published appointments do not reveal the point to which the Rev. Mr. Bochman was assigned.

L. W. West, E. C. Martin and Henry Donan, all of this city, were re-elected lay delegates of the conference.

Lad Held In Theft Of Bicycle Refuses To Divulge Identity

Police today were trying to solve the mystery surrounding the identity of a 14-year old lad being held at the juvenile home here in connection with the theft of a bicycle. According to the police, the boy refused to tell where he lived or anything about himself.

When arrested he gave two asserted fictitious addresses. It later told the police that he was a tramp and had recently come to Santa Ana from Texas. He would not tell what part of Texas he came from.

It was learned on further investigation that the boy had attended school in this city three days. At the time of his arrest he was in possession of a bicycle said to have been stolen from in front of The Register office several days ago.

SUSPECT DIVULGES LOCATION OF LOOT

After spending two days in solitary confinement at the county jail here, Carl H. Ehrhardt, 600 Minnie street, charged with burglary, broke his silence today and told police where a cornet and saxophone, stolen recently from the home of J. A. Ashman, 119 Grand avenue, could be found. He said the cornet was in a San Diego pawnshop and that the saxophone had been sold to an entertainer in a Tia Juana cafe. He refused to say anything regarding a 14-year-old boy who was with him when arrested and who told the police that Ehrhardt had beaten him and threatened his life.

The boy said that Ehrhardt had planned to rob a Santa Ana home Friday night. He was arrested Friday afternoon. Ehrhardt remained silent regarding a tire and spotlight said to have been found in his possession at the time of his arrest and identified by A. Wolfel, 902 East Chestnut avenue, as having been stolen from his automobile several days ago.

Hours of Oil Service Stations In Changes

Putting its usual winter schedule into effect, the Standard Oil company now is operating all of its service stations, except that at First and Main street, from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m., it became known here today. The First and Main street station will open, as usual, at 6 a. m. and close at 10 p. m., according to J. K. Hutchins, district agent.

Hutchins said the change did not affect any of the old employees of the company in this city, the release of men being those who were working only temporarily, the majority of them being young men of the high school or junior college.

No Injuries As Cars In Week-end Crashes

Traffic over the week-end in Orange county was free of personal injury cases, according to reports made today from local hospitals and from official sources. Three automobiles were badly damaged, however, in two collisions, according to reports at Sheriff Sam Jernigan's office.

Cars driven by Manuel Castellanos and Robert Clark, the latter a resident of Santa Ana, were both damaged in a collision at Greenville last night. A light car driven by Dwain F. Rodgers, Santa Ana, crashed into a truck driven by Ralph Eby of Anaheim Saturday at the intersection of Huntington Beach boulevard and Bolsa road, according to the reports.

S. A. Victim of Train Stabbing In Hospital

Harvey Perry, Santa Ana plasterer, stabbed by a Mexican on a Santa Fe train near Thatcher, Colo., late Thursday night, is at the Santa Fe hospital at La Junta, Colo., according to the latest information received here by F. T. Smith, Santa Fe agent.

At the request of relatives of the injured man, Smith yesterday telegraphed the agent at Albuquerque for further information on Perry. The telegram confirmed previous statements that Perry was not seriously injured.

A telegram sent by Perry to his relatives here on Friday indicated that he was on his way home that day. Later news indicated the telegram was incorrectly interpreted.

Perry is a brother of Mrs. Walter Patmor, 1024 West Third street.

RED RASH BROKE OUT ON FACE

"A red rash broke out on my face and was very itchy. The more I scratched it the more it seemed to spread. I could not sleep nights as the irritation made me very restless, and my face looked horrid."

"I read an advertisement and ointment for Cuticura Soap and ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it I found that the rash was drying up and disappearing so purchased more, which healed me." (Signed) Mrs. E. J. Krametbauer, 5718 W. 22nd Place, Cicero, Ill., March 20, 1923.

ST. ANN'S INN

—Sometimes I wonder if we Santa Anans, realize the unique place St. Ann's holds in our community, as a popular rendezvous for our Chamber of Commerce, during its present drive, also for the Business Men's and Business Women's Club meetings and weekly dinners—as society headquarters for the brilliant dinners and Bridge-Luncheons of the Smart set—in short, as OUR COMMUNITY CENTER? That we all enjoy St. Ann's, with its restful surroundings, superior cuisine and European service is evident, and our toast should be "Here's to St. Ann's! May it live long and prosper."

Torosa Members Greet State Officials on Inspection Tour

Commended by state officers in their presentation of floor work and initiatory degree, members of Torosa Rebekah lodge were today recalling the pleasures of inspection held recently at I. O. O. F. hall, when Mrs. Addie Byrn, of Windsor, president of the Rebekah assembly, made her official visit.
The entire day was given over to Rebekah affairs with officers of Torosa filling the stations during morning and afternoon sessions.
Mrs. Mildred Adams, noble grand presiding. At noon a delicious dinner resulted in response to the suggestion for a pot-luck affair.
The chapter room was beautiful in a decorative effect achieved by the use of tall bridge lamps, pedestals of ferns and swinging cages containing feathered songsters. In the banquet room where Miss Lily Farley had charge of the tables, lovely chrysanthemums from her own gardens were used in profusion.
Following registration of guests, each one was presented with a souvenir card containing pictures of the sun-dial which Torosa lodge recently placed on the lawn of the
I. O. O. F. Orphans' home at Gilroy. An interesting feature of the afternoon session was a display of needlework by the children of the home, brought by Mrs. Fanny Byrn, president of the board of trustees who just returned from Gilroy.
Mrs. Byrn asked for donations toward defraying surgical expenses for a little boy whose care she has assumed and whose deformed jaw will be operated upon. She received fifty dollars during afternoon and evening sessions.
In the evening, the grand officers and other distinguished guests were introduced and seated in places of honor while two candidates were initiated, a ceremony which called forth the statement that the work was the best presented of any seen in the southern division. Adding to the pleasure of the event were delightful vocal numbers presented by Miss Wislind of Anaheim and Hjalmar Johnson of Pasadena, the latter being accompanied by Mrs. Van Tuyle.
With Mrs. Byrn and E. R. Longley, grand master of the California
I. O. O. F. grand lodge, leading the way, a grand march ended at the banquet tables where chicken salad, wafers, peaches and cream, cake and coffee were enjoyed by over 500 guests, with officers seated at one large round table.
Gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums were used in decoration and were the gift of William Kesseman. Nut-cakes, candies and other table appointments emphasized the yellow color note. Decorations and menu were in charge of Mrs.
Amelia Prather.
The pleasing personality of Mrs. Byrn made her a delightful guest to entertain and she won scores of friends during her brief stay. Sharing honors with the distinguished president of the Rebekah Assembly were E. R. Longley, grand master of the grand chapter; Mrs. Marie Steinman, Pasadena, vice-president; Mrs.
Mary Pierce, Los Angeles, past president; Mrs. Fanny M. Lacy, Santa Ana, past president; and trustee of I. O. O. F. Orphans' home at Gilroy, Mrs. Stella Merrick, Long Beach, past president; Harry Say, Fresno, grand patriarch of grand encampment; James Colby, Pasadena, junior grand warden of encampment; Mrs. Say of Fresno, trustee of Orphans' home; Mrs. Arnold, Saratoga, matron of the I. O. O. F. home; Hjalmar Johnson of Pasadena, grand conductor; Mrs. Nellie Herbold, Pasadena, assembly trustee; Mrs. Mabel Seeley, San Diego, chaplain of the assembly; Mrs. Mary Annin, Fullerton, deputy president of district No. 50; Mrs. Amelia Prather, Santa Ana, grand outside guardian of the assembly; Mrs. Cora Joyce, assistant matron of Orphans' home.
District deputy presidents present included Mrs. Helen Meredith and Mrs. Ellen Abernathy, Los Angeles; Mrs. Olney Covina; and Mrs. Stryker, San Diego. District deputy grand masters were Mr.
Mauerhan of Anaheim and William McMann, Alhambra.
Major John Crawford and R. B.
Cook and Colonel Toone of Los Angeles, Patriarchs militant of the commanders staff of the Canton and Henry Mang, district deputy chief patriarch, completed the list.

City Teachers' League Offers Popular Poet
In Lecture-Recital

Declared to be the most popular poet and impersonator on the American platform today, Edmund Vance Cooke promises to meet with one of the most enthusiastic receptions of his career in Santa Ana, Thursday night, November
1 when he appears at the High School auditorium under the auspices of the City Teachers' league.
It is seldom that a poet is able to present his own works convincingly, but Edmund Vance Cooke is a master of interpretation—especially in the delicious child verses with which his name is so indissolubly connected. His book, "Chronicles of the Little Tot," contains some of the most happily conceived phrased child bits to be found in any literature and in hearing the poet read them himself, one visualizes the "Little Tot" most perfectly.
As a reader, Mr. Cooke has filled over twenty lyceum seasons, appearing in every state in the Union with one exception, and in Canada and England as well. As for those who find ample material in his writings for platform and lyceum work, their name is legion. No other American poet of the day is so widely quoted by writers, ministers and lecturers. It is said, and few readers or monologists who fail to include in their repertory, some of his inimitable verses.
Truly humorous both in his writings and his lectures, Mr.
Cooke's fun contains a heart of keen, clear meaning which stimu-lates the thought centers of all who read and hear him. In appearing in this city, he will present a well-rounded program of humor, fun, and Americanism in which comedy and pathos are successfully balanced.
Admission to the event will be nominal and a cordial invitation is extended by the City Teachers' league to the general public to be at the auditorium Monday night 8 o'clock prepared to enjoy an unusual evening.

Calumplit Committee Enjoys Busy Evening

The committee in charge of plans for the float which the Spanish-American War Veterans will have in the Armistice Day parade at Orange, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Botkin, 615 E. First street, on Friday evening.
Chas. W. Kincaid is chairman of the committee and has been untiring in his efforts to make the float a success. The ladies of the committee worked on some of the decorations to be used while the comrades discussed plans to represent a prominent incident of historical interest, of the Spanish-American War.
Business was combined with pleasure and during the evening
Mrs. Botkin served delicious refreshments. The evening was enjoyed so much that all expressed the hope that the "committee" would soon meet again.
Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs.
Botkin's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kincaid, Mr. and Mrs.
M. V. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Isbell, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Camp, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Tautinger, Mrs.
Estelle Dresser, Mr. and Mrs.
Charles E. Waffle and Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Donnelly of Anaheim.

Group of Schoolgirls Make Merry at Gay Attic Party

No place could offer a more inviting setting than that which greeted the young guests of Miss Elva Cook Saturday night, for upon their arrival at the home of their hostess, 328 West Washington, they were taken to the big attic where black cats, bats and all the symbols of the season were used in converting the place into a spook-haunted scene indeed.
Even a witches den added its weird touch and the young people, entered with delight into a series of lively Halloween games.
Miss Susie Temple and Miss Helen Douglas aided the hostess in serving refreshments of sandwiches, pumpkin pie, cocoa and home-made candies.
Asked to enjoy the evening with Miss Elva were her school friends, the Misses Fritzie Stroh, Emma Tannenbaum, Katherine
Chapman, Cornell Swain, Francis
Alsop, Katherine Barr, Emeline
Swales, Ruth Gardner, Maybelle
Ball, Mary Lay, Helen Hendricks, Lucile Morgan, Margaret Tedford, Margaret Wagner, Artha Ball of Brea and Dorothy Douglas of Portland, Oregon.

Music Teachers Will Present Artists at Annual Banquet

As the date of the annual banquet of the Orange County Music Teachers' association draws near, interest in the admirable program of the evening deepens among music lovers of the community.
For attendance at the banquet of the home of St. Ann's Inn Wednesday night at 7 o'clock, will not be limited to members of the association, who felt that such an array of talent as was to be presented, should give pleasure to all those who cared to join them.
Therefore anyone musically inclined, who wishes to attend the banquet may make reservations through Miss Carolyn Haughton
by telephoning 641-W.
In addition to the speakers, Miss Antoinette Sabel and Mrs. Cecil Frankel both of Los Angeles, Miss Mabel Woodworth of the program committee has succeeded in obtaining Anna Priscilla Risher, noted Los Angeles composer, Wa Van club members and teacher at the Cummock School, Los Angeles and who will be accompanied by Blanch McTavish Smith, contralto soloist of the Pasadena Presbyterian church. Mrs. Smith will sing two groups of Miss Risher's songs.
Another vocalist to be presented is Floyd Kennard of this city whose baritone voice has been the delight of the few friends who have had the opportunity of hearing the vocalist since his arrival in Santa Ana.
With June Hamilton Rhodes as toast-mistress, a lively session is promised at the dinner hour.

Wise Old Owls Yield Inspiration For Hallowe'en

During the recent windstorm when an immense rubber tree at the home Mr. and Mrs. B. Utt-ley, 423 East Pine street, was destroyed, it caused a nest of young owls to take refuge in crevices of the house, where their nightly hooting inspired Miss Marjorie Adams with the idea that the home of her grand-parents was a fitting place for an All Saints' day celebration.
So Saturday night the spacious rooms were the rendezvous for Miss Marjorie and her guests, who, greeted by Mrs. Uttley, celebrated "apple night" and held a merry-go-round from 7 o'clock until 9:30.
In keeping with the lively program of games and amusements, decorations and refreshments suggested the Halloween nature of the affair.
Those present to enjoy the happy evening were the young hostess, Miss Marjorie Adams and the Misses Gertrude Prior, Marian Parsons, Barbara and Louise Rupp, Louise Mason, Ellen Sneyley, Regina Gilbert, Kathryn Chandler, Aileen and Marian Adams.

Women Jury Frees

Death Car Driver

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—After deliberating for an hour and thirty minutes, a jury of twelve women in Superior Judge Ward's court acquitted Joseph Lucia, 1626 Jones street, on a charge of manslaughter for running down and killing Ernest Parritt, 3 years old, at Florida and Seventeenth street last November 19.

Lucia was driving on the wrong side of the street when the fatal accident happened. Mrs. Emily Parritt, 2900 Seventeenth street, mother of the child victim, testified.

Outside of court, Mrs. Parritt is said to have told former Judge Morris Oppenheim and Attorney James Brennan, Lucia's counsel, that she did not wish to see the defendant convicted and sent to the penitentiary, because she had been told he was planning to be married before Christmas providing he is not convicted.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Today's dealings in the stock market afforded little excitement for the investors.

Prices were heavy in the early dealings, reflecting continuation of the selling movement in progress at last week's close. After the offering of which accumulated over the week-end had been absorbed, the market settled into a trend was of features of interest.

Developed during the remainder of the session to relieve the "monotonous character of the trading."

Hope entertained regarding a change for the better in European diplomatic relations received somewhat of a setback from the obstacle in France's attitude revealed by dispatches over the week-end. Other bearish points which some observers emphasized were the six per cent decline in bank clearings last week as compared with the corresponding period of 1922 and the second successive weekly decline in the commodity price, indeed.

But if the market had no rallying power it was equally indifferent to attempts to force further liquidation. If any trend was in the afternoon it was toward higher levels.

Short covering became more prominent in the final dealings and the closing tone of the market was the best of the day. Studebaker rallied two points to 35 1/4. American Can, 1 1/2 to 32 1/4, and similar recoveries took place in other industrial leaders.

Marine pfd. was a point of special strength, reaching a new high on the movement at 30 1/2, in response to indications of an improvement in the company's earnings as a result of the recent pickup in the shipping business.

Trading Is Quiet

ON S. F. MARKETS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—A quiet

trade prevailed local poultry and game, fruit and vegetable markets today.

The only activity noticeable in the poultry market was in the trade on fancy leghorn hens. This stock is very light, both on hand and in receipt.

and good stock will easily bring top prices. Fancy young dressed turkeys are selling from 40 to 43 cents per pound.

In the fruit market the tendency of prices was upward in the strawberry and raspberry trade. Receipts of both commodities were very light. Three cars of late Howe cranberries were received from the east, with the local opening price generally reported at $18 per barrel. There was a fairly good demand for the fruit.

On account of light frost the last few days, many fresh vegetables were in lighter supply and slightly higher price. Brown onions are said to be bringing as high as $1.85 per cwt. at the wharf. Fancy cucumbers sold up to $2.50 per large lot. Tomatoes were slow.

Receipts today were as follows:

Sweet potatoes, three cars; lettuce,

four potatoes, two California, five

Oregon, six Washington, two Idaho and two Nevada; 21 cars of potatoes on the track only 13 had been broken at the height of the morning's trading.

THORNY WEDDED LIFE IS CITED BY MAJOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Alleging that his wife threatened him until he "actually and reasonably believed his life was endangered," Major James R. Mount, army medical officer, stationed at the Presidio and wearer of the distinguished service medal, filed suit for divorce against Mrs. Lillian W. Mount. The couple, who were married in 1902, separated in December of last year. They have a son, James R. Mount Jr., 14 years old, who is living with his mother at 2889 Union street.

Major Mount has quarters at the Olympic club. His wife's threats to take his life, Major Mount alleges in the complaint, which was filed in the superior court by Judge Bradley V. Sargent, his attorney, not only caused him to flee his home, but resulted in social ostracism by his fellow army officers and their wives, greatly to his mental anguish. Major Mount alleges that he is willing to make any reasonable provision for the support and maintenance of his wife and son, but recites that it is impossible for him to again live with Mrs. Mount.

Come to California
The complaint reveals a story of unhappy relations between the army officer and his wife extending over a period of five years. In his complaint Major Mount alleges that upon his return from France after the armistice, he resumed his medical practice in Washington, D. C., but was hampered and ridiculed by Mrs. Mount, who, among other things, accused him of too friendly relations with feminine patients.

The couple came to California a year ago, and have been living in San Francisco for the past three months. Major Mount alleges that in June, 1922, his wife threatened to kill him and he fled from home, fearing she would make good her threats.

The complaint accuses Mrs. Mount of "extreme jealousy" being given to outbursts of groundless accusations, while at other times she carried on a campaign of silence, refusing to prepare his meals and making life miserable for him. He last saw her, the complaint alleges, on December 22, 1922.

Ignored By Wife
As an army officer, Major Mount alleges, "it is a tradition that a commissioned man prides himself on the fact that he is an officer and a gentleman, but the defendant, knowing of this pride, wilfully remarked that while he was an officer he was no gentleman." Major Mount further alleges that Mrs. Mount refused to make social calls with him to such an extent that his fellow officers ostracized him.

While he lay ill in the Letterman general hospital four days in June and twenty days in September of this year, Major Mount alleges, Mrs. Mount did not once call at the hospital nor did she once inquire as to his welfare. This neglect, Major Mount alleges, caused him "extreme mental anguish and great bodily suffering."

Major Mount had been in charge of all medical stores in France under General Pershing, and in recognition of his services was given the distinguished service medal. Major Mount has been in the regular army establishment since May, 1910.

TALBERT

TALBERT, Oct. 29.—The discussion of plans for enlarging the Fountain Valley school building and grounds is a momentous question in the Talbert community at present, and a subject which is largely occupying the time and thought of the school trustees.

A call meeting was made for Tuesday evening, but owing to failure to broadcast the date sufficiently the number gathered did not justify the holding of the meeting so it was postponed.

The plans which are to be put before the people and which seem the most feasible to meet present conditions are as follows:

Purchase one acre of land adjoining the school grounds; purchase the Japanese hall and move to this location.

Negotiations for the purchase of the land from Robert Wardlow are under way and in case the deal is made it will necessitate the demolition of the Ray Wardlow house, outbuilding and shop to the new location just north of the present, this to be done by the school district, according to the present understanding. The Japanese hall, which it is thought could be purchased could then be moved just north of the present school building and would furnish sufficient quarters for the overflow classes for the present and could be much more quickly accomplished than could the erection of even a temporary wooden addition to the school that was at first proposed when the need for more extensive quarters became apparent.

Charles Dennis had one hand and one foot severely mangled on Thursday while at work. Dennis, who is employed on the pilerider which is in operation on the Santa Ana river bank driving piling for the Newbert protection district, was moving the rollers upon which the dredger is moved when the members were crushed, Dennis was taken to Santa Ana, where the wounds were dressed by Dr. Burlew, after which he was brought to his home here.

The double store building being erected by S. E. Talbert to replace the building recently burned on this site is going up rapidly and it is expected the corrugated iron roof will be put on this week. The Vincent brothers are the contractors.

Frank Harper was still confined at his home at the last report as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident on the Huntington Beach boulevard Tuesday. Harper suffered an injury to his side and six teeth were knocked loose.

Ben Rogers has raised his two silos eight feet each, which brings them to a height of 41 feet and a capacity of 80 tons each. The filling of the silos is now nearing completion.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Reed and son, Boyd, have moved to the Huntington Beach Land company's ranch, where the men are in charge of the nearly 1,000 acres of barley land, which Sam Talbert has leased.

The Wednesday evening prayer meeting at the local church was led by Mr. Hansen, who in the absence of the pastor, spoke also before the close of the meeting. Quite a large crowd enjoyed the service.

The last of the oiling of streets in the Jepson tract near Talbert was finished Friday and S. E. Talbert's teams and men were moved to Silver Acres tract No. 2 east of Bolsa, where Talbert has the street contract with Mr. Guthrie, the tract manager.

The improvements on the Courreges ranch being put in by John Courreges are going in rapidly. The house which Courreges purchased has been moved on to the land and the well drillers began putting down a well on the property Tuesday.

Beau thrashing was completed on the George and Will Bushard ranches this week and the beans all stored in the Huntington Beach warehouse.

Mrs. S. E. Talbert left Thursday morning for Los Angeles to spend several days in attendance at the conference of the Methodist church, south, which is now convening.

Gwendolyn Swift, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Swift, was in a very serious condition for two days as the result of eating some weiners and sauer kraut the past week. The doctor was with her four days until all danger was past. She is now entirely recovered.

Robert Harper's six-room modern bungalow, which is under construction on his acre lot in the Gilbert tract, is going up quite rapidly. J. O. Harper is the carpenter. It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Williams, who until recently lived on a fruit ranch east of town and are now at Huntington Beach, are to move into the Parsons house when Harper vacates it to move to his new home.

The Calles bean thrasher moved back Thursday evening from Greenville to the John Pope field. They were to go to Harry Fulton's ranch next.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walker and little daughter, Maybelle, were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper. Mr. and Mrs. Walker, who are former Talbert residents, have been living at Corbell, Humboldt county, for some time, where Walker was overseeing his uncle's ranch. They may in time return to Corbell, but if they find a satisfactory location here, will remain. Mr. and Mrs. Walker drove through, taking two weeks for the trip.

The house which Mrs. A. C. Burley purchased near Huntington Beach, was moved Tuesday to her five-acre tract, west of town. Mrs. Burley will occupy the house as soon as the leveling is finished.

Police Seek Parents of Girl Killed In Fall

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 29.—The authorities are seeking to locate the relatives of Miss Helen Ireland, 24, who met death when her bicycle plunged over a cliff in Montecito. She came here from Los Angeles two months ago, but is believed to have lived in San Francisco for some years. Her parents are believed to live either in San Francisco or Portland.

JAIL THREE IN TRIPLE CRASH OF AUTOS

Steve Cardenis was under arrest here today charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and having liquor in his possession, while Arcadia Munoz and Joe Contreras were also in custody on suspicion of connection with an automobile accident Saturday night at the corner of Tenth street and Broadway.

Two other Mexicans, who refused to give their names, and were taken to the institution. They were returned to the scene of the accident and, according to police officers, fled when they learned that the police were investigating the wreck.

The car driven by Cardenis, who lives at El Modena, crashed into the auto of G. T. Martin, after hitting the Anderson car.

Amusement for everybody will be found in abundance, the main attraction being the two-ring circus where animal acts, clowns, aerial acts, wire walkers, jugglers and numerous other entertainers hold forth.

The Royal Doll family of world's famous midgets, described as the most perfect little people, will be here to entertain with dancing and singing and tell their life history.

The side shows contain all manner of interesting, educational and amusing things, from fat people to the other extreme John Backman's Show of Tropical wonders, monkey speedway, bug house and many other attractions.

The Santa Ana lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose will hold forth with a big country store and will begin the week's enjoyment with a big street parade tonight at 7:30, and will follow in front of the Moose Temple on Fourth street. NAB 8 YOUTHS IN FIGHT ON MASHERS
Leo Goepfer, acting city recorder, here today imposed suspended sentences of six months each on eight youths, ranging in age from 15 to 19 years, as the first result of the recently-instituted police drive on mashers.

The youths, who were seated in an automobile in front of a theater, were asserted to have accosted a woman, who reported the occurrence to Patrolman Howell. Howells stood in a cigar store and listened to the boys for a few minutes and placed them under arrest. They were charged with disturbing the peace. In recorder's court today the boys admitted that they were guilty of making remarks about women who passed and also of accosting girls. They claimed that they did not know that they were doing wrong.

City Marshal Claude Rogers said: "If it is necessary to send a few men to jail in order to make the streets safe for women we will send them to jail."

RALLY DAY MARKS METHODIST SERVICE

One result of the city canvass of Methodist Episcopal workers, was shown at the regular Sunday school hour yesterday when fully 900 persons were present to enjoy Rally day services. After the study hour all departments met in general assembly. General Superintendent A. H. Theal presiding. The Rev. Will A. Betts made the address of the hour and announced the slogan of the school for the coming year as "Every member of the Sunday school a member of the church by Easter."

At the morning church service the Rev. Mr. Betts, speaking on "The Hope of the Future," declared:

"The light of present day intelligence, it is a crime to let the children drift from the church. In the hearts of the young people is the most fertile spot for the seed of the Gospel. We should give the very best we have to the youth of our generation."

NEW HOSPITAL AT PASADENA POINTED TO

Citing Pasadena's new four-story hospital, in which the entire maternity department was declared to have been donated by one woman, as indicative of what Santa Ana might accomplish along similar lines, a statement issued today by the Santa Ana Valley Hospital association pointed out that co-operation was essential in the campaign for a new institution here.

The statement, prepared by a prominent local physician, follows: "Recently, Pasadena opened to its city a hospital of the very latest type, no expense being spared in installing the most adequate devices which ingenuity has evolved for the comfort of the sick. It is a four-story building, the top floor being devoted to maternity cases. The delivery rooms of this department rank as the finest in the country, and all improvements possible for modern hospitals are included. The second and third floors are devoted to medical and surgical cases while the ground floor is adapted to care for numerous other patients.

"The important thing, however, in this hospital is that the entire maternity department was donated by one person, a lady who surely believes in the importance of such an institution in the time of sickness, one who knows that her time and money could not

Headlights Citations Call for Quick Action, Officers Declare

Have you a little headlight citation in your home—or maybe in your pocket?

If so, listen to this "warning from Warner."

"Motorists who have headlight citations had better bring them in," was the declaration made today by Henry S. Warner, captain of the state motorcycle police stationed here.

Captain Warner made the remark in his customary grim manner, indicating that he wasn't joking about the matter.

During recent operations of the motorcycle officers in checking up on headlight citations, numerous motorists were given citations to attend to their headlights. After having adjustments made at some official headlight station; the motorist, it was pointed out, must bring his citation and adjustment certificate to some justice-of-the-peace or other designated authority and have the certificate given the official stamp of approval, after which the citation is released.

Advise Quick Action

According to Captain Warner, the citations given to motorists provide that the headlight adjustments must be made within twenty-four hours. In spite of that fact, he says, many motorists who were issued citations some days ago have not yet appeared with certificates of adjustment.

Those motorists who received citations between October 15 and 25 should attend to the adjustments at once if they have not already done so, Warner warned. Otherwise, he said, warrants of arrest will be issued for them.

It will be remembered as being stated that Captain Warner spoke in his customary grim manner, indicating that he was not joking.

Under the observation of State Traffic Inspectors George T. Gilroy and E. L. Brock, who are spending a few days with the Orange county motorcycle squad, the officers staged a demonstration of headlight adjusting Saturday night at Anaheim.

Numerous motorists were halted and their headlight defects demonstrated to them by means of a testing apparatus that the officers had brought with them and established on the ground.

Certificate Explained

This manner of bringing the headlight situation directly to the attention of the motorists was regarded as an excellent "attention compeller" in the advertisement of the department's campaign of education.

With reference to adjustment certificates issued to motorists at headlight stations, Inspector Gilroy had the following to say today:

"The only time these certificates are required is when the motorist brings his citation before the justice. Then he must show something to prove that his headlights have been adjusted. Hence the certificate."

"The law does not require possession of these certificates. What the law demands is that headlights be properly adjusted, not that the owner of the car has a certificate showing that they were so at one time. Possession of the certificate, however, does show that the motorist had attempted to comply with the law, though his headlights may be out of adjustment subsequently. In that respect the certificate would be useful to gain favorable consideration from officers who might halt the motorist on account of his headlights."

MARRIED STATE ILLS SUBJECT OF INQUIRY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—Marriage, divorce and the child will be the subjects of a searching survey to be made at the University of California under the extension division, Professor L. J. Richardson, director.

Just why divorce is increasing so rapidly will be probed by Miss Mary Burt Messner, New York social worker, who has arrived in Berkeley to take up the matrimonial quiz for Professor Richardson.

Need Held Great.

"The need of such a study is so great it is to be wondered at that it has not been launched before this," declares Professor Richardson. "This investigation will be no mere scratching of the surface. We will probe down deeply into the heart of things and when we finish we shall have some real recommendations to offer to the world at large."

"Although the family is the most important unit of society, very little attention has been paid to it in the past," says Miss Messner, who will conduct the probe, under the auspices of the university extension department.

Study to Be Thorough.

"If anyone is to get the fundamentals underlying our present turbulent marital conditions it must be the woman. American marriage standards are undeniably different from those of other countries and as such must be studied separately. However, a study will be made of the marriage institution in all of the countries as represented in the great melting pot of the United States."

Miss Messner urges upon the women of the country to give support to a duly authorized study of the American family, claiming that in this way woman can make an original contribution to the world and give something of lasting benefit to society.

Airplanes Advertise Navy Day Observance

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—Airplanes flew over this city in numbers Saturday. Some of them going one way, some another. Many of them were flying low and as they passed over the city dropped slips of paper telling the people of Huntington Beach about "Navy Day" Saturday.

Many people, no doubt, wondered what the small pieces of material were that floated down from the passing ships. One of the planes was forced to land just outside of the oil field on the western side of town because of engine trouble. The aviator was soon able to proceed on his way to Los Angeles, however.

People from over town flocked to where the small slips of paper were settling to the ground in the town to learn what they were all about. The papers set forth the stand taken by the navy on the "Limitation of Arms" treaty and also stated that Navy day was held on the birthday anniversary of Theodore Roosevelt.

HOW NEW FIRE CALL SYSTEM TO FUNCTION HERE, TOLD

Zoning of City Into Three Districts With As Many Stations Is Outlined

MORE EFFICIENCY SEEN

40 Alarm Boxes to Be Put Throughout Santa Ana By Jan. 1, Is Plan

Santa Ana's new fire alarm system and the east and west side fire stations will be completed and in operation by January 1, according to a declaration made today by John Luxembourg, fire chief, when it became known that a shipment of wire for the new system was scheduled to arrive here this week.

At the same time Luxembourg stated that the installation of the system would require no great length of time. He placed the date of final completion at January 1, in anticipation of delays that might develop in work of this type. "There are many things that may develop that will result in delay and for this reason I am playing safe, by making prediction that the equipment will be in service by the first of the year," said the fire chief.

Plan Three Districts
Pointing out that the new plant calls for forty alarm stations, the chief said the system would extend over a larger territory than the present obsolete system does.

Concerning the operation of the central and two auxiliary stations, Luxembourg said that the city would be divided into three districts, with each station responding to calls in its district.

The central station, which will embrace the largest area, will be known as District 1. The east-side station will be located in District 2 and the west-side station in District 3, he said. The boundaries of each district have not been decided yet, he added.

Signal Indicates District
An alarm turned in from any district will go to each of the three stations, but the first signal will indicate the district from which the alarm is turned in, he declared.

Pointing out the plans for responding to calls, Luxembourg said that in case of an alarm from either of the outside districts, the squad wagon from Station 1 would be sent as auxiliary equipment. In other words, the squad wagon at the central station would be sent on all calls.

Should a second alarm be sent in from any district, the idle equipment at an outside station would move to central and the equipment from the latter would respond to the call, according to the fire chief. In case of fire calls being sent in by telephone, plans have been developed for notifying the department of the district in which

CLAIMS SHOW THAT 'DRAGS' BIGGEST OF HOME-TALENT BANES

"The greatest bugaboo of amateur operatic productions?" Ellis Rhodes, director of the Orange County Choral union, which will present "Robin Hood," Reginald De Koven's perennially popular opera, at Yost's theater here the nights of December 4 and 5, thoughtfully echoed the interviewer's question.

"Without any doubt," he replied, "the greatest handicap and one which most surely repels an audience, no matter how friendly it may be, is a 'draggy' performance."

Professional producers know this. That is one of the reasons why the Follies and other great Broadway revues have achieved such remarkable success — they set a breath-taking pace from start to finish.

Moving Sets
Not Cause.
"Of course, one would not expect such sedate and leisurely operas as 'The Bohemian Girl' or 'Robin Hood' and others of the 'old-timers' to be played at such a furious pace as a modern revue. But between the tempo of the latter and the almost deadly tempo of some amateur productions, there is a happy medium."

Many persons, seeking a reason for the slowness of some amateur performances, at once indict the scene-shifter — the long waits between acts, caused by delay in arranging settings, say the critics, are responsible.

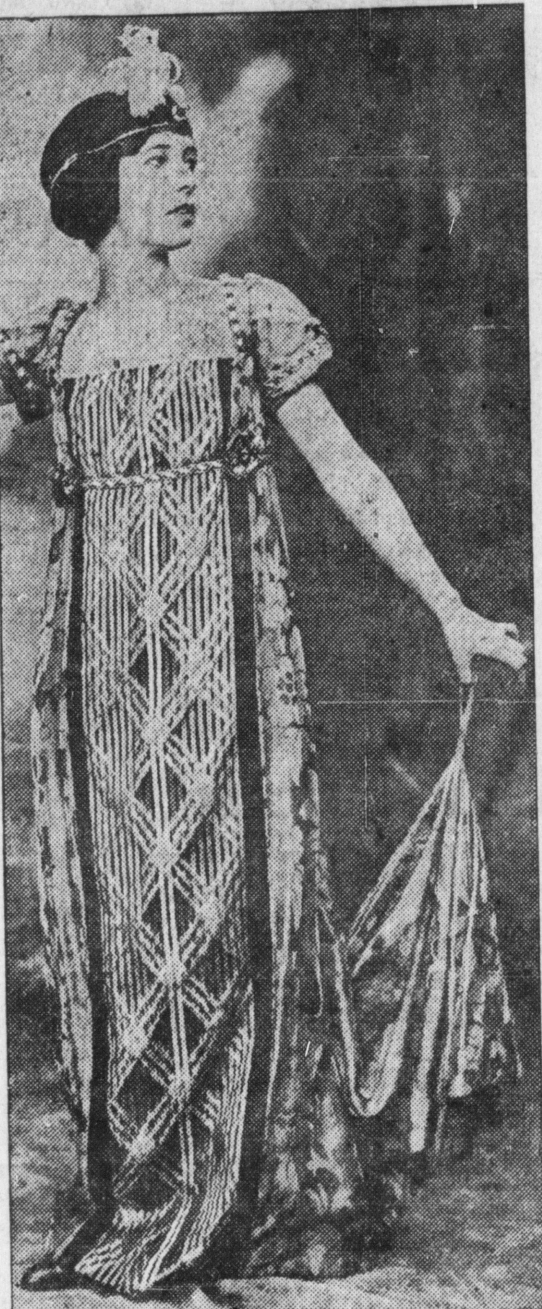

"While this is to some extent true, at the same time there are a dozen little ways, of whose existence the public is little aware, in which an opera may be made to roll along more swiftly and smoothly."

Matches Stage Moves.
"There is, for instance, the trick of anticipating cues. The professional soloist, as he hears the end of his song, begins to move toward the wings. The second he has sung his final note, he vanishes. On the other hand, the amateur calmly stands in the center of the stage

How the desire for a swim saved the life of a nephew of J. W. Elliott, 1911 North Main street, at the time of the earthquake at Yokohama, was graphically told here today when Elliott received from Schenectady, N. Y., a newspaper clipping of a letter that the nephew, R. K. Elliott, an engineer

PAVING JINX ON WEST FIFTH IS NEAR END

Work Expected to Be Under Way This Winter, Barring Interventions

"Yes, we are going to pave West Fifth street, from Baker street west to the city limits—

"If something unforeseen does not bob up again to cause disarrangement of plans."

This statement was made today by G. W. Knox, city engineer, and the qualification was made because of the fact that a "jinx" has been on the West Fifth street paving program ever since proceedings for improvement were started, following voting of a bond issue of $30,000 to assist property owners in paying for the repaving.

According to the engineer, hearing of protests against the proposed improvement is set for Monday evening of next week. He expected the city clerk would be directed on the same evening to advertise for bids with offers being received on the evening of Monday, November 26.

See Start by Dec. 10.

Pointing out that the property owners have ten days following in which to decide whether they want to take over the work and have it done themselves, and that the contractor to whom the job may be awarded has five days following the ten in which to sign, the engineer said that work ought to be in progress by December 10.

He said that starting of the improvement would not be delayed because of the possible interference with work by rainy weather. With favorable weather conditions, in which event, at the extreme limit, the work should be completed around the middle of March. He pointed out, however, that rain is almost certain to cause delay.

Foot Strip First.

Outlining his program for the work, he said that the twenty foot strip in the center, to be built from Artesia to the city limits, would be laid first. This would make it possible to arrange for a detour into and out of the city by way of Sullivan and First streets, he pointed out.

Upon completion of this section, work will be started on the full width pavement from Baker to Artesia street. He said that only half of the street at a time would be paved, making the street available to traffic and avoiding the necessity for a detour.

He is authority for the statement that the council has not yet decided how it will apportion the $30,000 voted by the city to the two different sections of the improvement.

Concerning the conditions that have been responsible for the numerous delays in the proceedings, Knox said that the first setback came with discovery that First street, west of Artesia, is not a deeded street. Only twenty feet is available, as that width had been acquired by usage, the thoroughfare having been in use

CHOOSE ORANGE COUNTY NUTS FOR LONDON

Orange county, known throughout the United States and Canada for the excellence of its walnuts, has been highly honored by the California Walnut Growers association, according to A. J. McFadden, prominent rancher, here today.

"I am informed," McFadden said, "that the central association, with headquarters in Los Angeles, has sent to England 100 sacks of budded walnuts, on a special order received from Shearns, Limited, with headquarters in London."

"This shipment, selected from Orange county walnuts, went forward October 11, on the steamship Lochkatrina of the Holland American line, and will reach the European trade in time for the holidays."

"I understand the executives of the California Walnut Growers association feel that this order is a great compliment to the excellence of Southern California walnuts. France and Italy are constantly shipping nuts to England, many of these nuts being first-class in every particular. We feel, therefore, that the Orange county walnut growers have good reason to feel elated by virtue of the fact that a big English firm has ordered five tons of our product."

McFadden added that the walnuts shipped to England were as fine as any to be found anywhere in the world.

"The inspector's report," McFadden said, "shows that the walnuts cracked 95 per cent perfect. The size and appearance was excellent."

McFadden was unable to state what prices will prevail when the Orange county walnuts are sold to the foreign trade.

Twenty-six cents per pound was paid for the walnuts on the wholesale market in Los Angeles.

COMMUNITY PLAYERS HERE TONIGHT TO OPEN FOURTH YEAR WITH BIG THRILLER

With the good wishes of hundreds of theatergoers of the city, the Santa Ana Community Players' association, "an organization of the people, by the people, for the people," tonight, at the Temple theater here, will open its fourth season with Bayard Veiller's famous melodramatic mystery play, "The Thirteenth Chair." Performances of this work are also to be given tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Working indefatigably for two months with a group of equally enthusiastic players, Ernest Crozier Phillips, director of the organization, has whipped into shape what is confidently predicted will be hailed as one of the outstanding achievements of the Players.

For several weeks the men and women of the play have been rehearsing nightly, with the exception of Saturdays and Sundays. Rehearsals began at 6:30 o'clock and continued invariably far into the night. Saturday night a dress rehearsal was held at midnight, due to the fact that the stage at the Temple theater was not available at an earlier hour.

The objects of the organization are set forth on its programs as follows:

Objects Told.
"The Santa Ana Community Players' association is a non-profit civic enterprise. Its purpose is two-fold: to give to the individual a chance to function in a group of sympathetic workers who have as their aim a simple and sincere interpretation of worthwhile plays; to afford to the community at large a chance to enjoy its people as they seek to express themselves in the most democratic of art forms."

The case of "The Thirteenth Chair," in the order of the appearance of each character, is as follows:

Helen O'Neill, Hazel Landers Hummel, Will Crosby, Clay Minnix, Mrs. Crosby, Fannie E. Reeve, Roscoe Crosby, Don Donald, Edward Wales, Edward Hummel, Mary Eastwood, Fay E. Hankins, Helen Trent, Faye Minnix, Braddish Trent, George Mayer, Howard Standish, Edwin J. Wright, Philip Mason, Harry Brackett, Elizabeth Erskine, Marie Brecheen, Grace Standish, Al Neely, Pollock, Donald Fletcher, Madame Rosalie La Grange, Estella Card Beaman, Tim Donohue, Robert Paine, Sergeant Dunn, C. Ferris Spencer.

Murder Is Mystery.
For sheer thrills, perhaps no other play written during the past decade has achieved such a success as "The Thirteenth Chair." With consummate skill, the author finds a solution for a complex murder problem that he has set for himself: A murder is committed in the dark, in a room in which there is a group of persons in which every means of exit had previously been securely fastened from the inside. The murder was committed with a knife, and yet a thorough search of each person fails to reveal a knife!

With each passing moment the suspense becomes more tense, and suspicion falls first on one person, then on another. The programs contain this: "If you enjoy 'The Thirteenth Chair,' tell your friends; but kindly keep the mystery a secret."

The play is in three acts and observes the three unities of time, place and action. The curtain drops during Act 3 to denote a lapse of time. The entire play covers a period of only a few hours. The scene is laid in Roscoe Crosby's home, New York city.

Musio Also Featured.
One of the outstanding features of the performances will be the musical program to be presented by Grace L. Weiler, pianiste; James Sanborn Murphy, baritone; and D. C. Cianfoni, trombonist.

"R. U. R.," by Carle Kapek, the next production of the Community Players, to be presented in December, has been lauded by critics as unique, and one of the most entertaining plays in New York this season.

The players here will be the first amateur or professional organization in the West to offer this dramatic success.

ART TREASURES ADDED BY S. A. MAN ON TRIP.

Reaching Santa Ana late last week from an extended trip "around the edges of the United States," as he phrased it, Fred Rafferty is now at his home, 117 East Tenth street, immersed in his collection of Orientalia to which he will add many valuable books and manuscripts picked up in New York city and which are following him here.

The Rafferty collection of art treasures, rapidly growing, is one which its owner hopes to make the basis for a museum collection later. Many of the most valuable pieces were obtained by the owner upon trips to the Orient.

Traveling eastward by way of the Canadian Rockies, touching at Montreal and thence journeying southward into the United States and to New York city, Rafferty spent several weeks there, where he had the pleasure of greeting two former Santa Anans, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Jackson.

Jackson, who last year was connected with the English department of Santa Ana high school, is now on the teaching staff of the New Rochelle, N. Y., high school, and studying at Columbia university, with his doctor's degree in English in sight. He and Mrs. Jackson have furnished a very charming little apartment in New York, and in the spare time left from teaching and studying, Jackson is turning out articles and translations from the German for the Hearst publications in New York, Rafferty reported.

From New York Rafferty went to Washington, thence to Jacksonville, Tampa and St. Augustine, Fla. Traveling ever westward, the homeward way was made via New Orleans, which offered its sleepy, southern charm to the traveler.

The friends of Miss Charlotte Dresser, who accompanied Rafferty to visit relatives in the East, were delighted on her return to see her able to walk without the aid of the crutches. Before the trip she had suffered a fall, with a broken ankle as the consequence.

Oil Workers Hurt But None Seriously

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—Several accidents were reported to the emergency hospital during the past few days.

E. C. Preboda of this city was injured when a large tubling block slipped and fell on his left foot, breaking the big toe and badly crushing and bruising the rest of his toes and foot. He is employed by the Amalgamated Oil company.

B. Hammontrout of this city was given treatment for a substance in his left eye.

A. Salas of Santa Ana was injured when a feeder box fell on his shoulders, badly bruising and straining them. He is employed by N. J. Lamb of Santa Ana.

O. T. Trammell injured the little finger of his right hand when another man lost his balance while standing on a board and in falling pulled Trammell off with him. Mr. Trammell's right hand and arm were severely cut and bruised.

VISIT IN SANTA ANA
HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elgar of this city spent one night last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patterson, of Santa Ana, who are old friends of theirs. After a delightful dinner cards were enjoyed until a late hour when Mr. and Mrs. Elgar returned to their home in Huntington Beach. Mrs. Elgar is a daughter of Mr. J. A. Armistage, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce.

TONIGHT

OPENING PERFORMANCE

By the Santa Ana Community Players' Association of Bayard Veiller's famous thriller, "The Thirteenth Chair." An outstanding event of the present theatrical season in Santa

Ana. The advance seat sale for the four performances, tonight, tomorrow night, Wednesday night and Thursday night, has been unprecedented. This means that those who delay procuring their tickets are likely to be disappointed.

"THE 13TH CHAIR"

as presented by the Community Players, will thrill you, grip you, keep you in suspense. It is a dramatic treat. The way in which the author has presented his mystery of who killed Edward Wales and the manner in which he solves the mystery is nothing short of marvelous in the history of dramatic writing. A capable cast presents the play!

Season tickets may yet be purchased. They are $2.50 and entitle you to four seats that may be used at will at any time during the season of four plays to be produced by the Santa Ana Community Players' association this winter. General tickets, 75 cents for mezzanine floor, 50 cents for balcony.

TEMPLE—The Santa Ana Community Players' association present, "The Thirteenth Chair," mystery play.

WANTED HOXIE TO RULE SOUTH SEA ISLE

It is the cold fact that motion picture stars are in receipt of the most remarkable letters of all sorts and conditions from all over the world, and Jack Hoxie, the famous cowboy star, is no exception to the rule. Probably the most remarkable missive that Jack has recently received came from a group of aboriginals without a head on a small South Sea Island.

They wanted a white man to be their prince or ruler, or chief, and some of them during a recent visit to the mainland had seen a Hoxie picture. So by the aid of a missionary on this particular island they wrote to Jack Hoxie at Los Angeles and asked him to accept the position, but he was compelled to decline this flattering offer.

His latest picture, "Sparks of Flint," will be shown at the Princess tonight for the last time.

"ARE YOU A FAILURE"

Tom Forman, who directed "Are You a Failure," which opens tonight at the Yost, can trace his career almost exactly as can D. W. Griffith.

Years ago Forman became a leading man with Famous Players, where he played juveniles until he rebelled and was given a part that created a great sensation at that time—one in which he played a man with a scar on his face. That was flying in the face of tradition in the days when a juvenile was a pretty boy and nothing else. But even that did not satisfy his craving to do something intelligent, so he was given a heavy, in another production.

But Forman's ambition to tell them what to do got the better of him, and he agitated so strongly in favor of direction that he was given a picture to do. And his success from that point is now screen history that is familiar to us all.

'HOT DOG' STANDS AROUSE RICH MEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—"Hot dogs or ruin."

That is the ultimatum put to the millionaire board of trustees of the exclusive town of Atherton by one of the millionaires, J. C. Coryell, who owns a beautiful 40-acre residence estate on the state highway. Coryell petitioned the board to have his place included in the "business district" of Atherton, claiming that the presence of the "hot-dog" marts across the highway were ruining his place as a residence.

Closely questioned by the board, Coryell admitted his place now was worth a thousand and a half and that if he sold it for "hot-dog" establishments it would be worth much more, in fact, Coryell said he thought he could get $6,000 an acre. Some of the millionaires are said to have wished they owned highway acreage. Coryell's petition was taken under consideration. The Atherton town treasury which started as a blank was enriched by two dollars and fifty cents. Joseph Campedonic had paid that sum for a building permit. There was much discussion what to do with the two-fifty. That also was taken under consideration, for action at the next meeting.

Native Sons Taxed 35 Cents for Sentiment

REDDING, Oct. 22.—McCloud Parlor of Native Sons of Redding has to pay 35 cents in taxes this year on the ruins of the old court house in the old town of Shasta. Over a year ago the Native Sons gave the county $1 for the ruins, which they desired to preserve as far as possible for historical purposes. They were taken back a little to receive notice from the county tax collector that their taxes amounted to 35 cents for the year. The taxes will be paid and no advantage taken of the installment plan.

In accordance with a custom of several years standing the University of Michigan will open its football season with a game against Case Scientific school on October 3.

NEEDED AMBULANCES FOR MOVIE ARMY

Ambulances were just as numerous and much busier than the ever-present commissary wagon while the Tom Forman company was "on location" filming "The Broken Wing," now showing at the West End theater.

Not the least of the several "thrillers" staged for the picture was a revolutionary battle scene between two Mexican armies. But when Forman carried his props, cameramen and experts from the Schulberg studios in Los Angeles to New Mexico, he failed to count on the belligerent attitude of the Mexicans who were hired to play the soldier roles.

The presence of rifles and other arms in large quantities presented opportunities for the settlement of long standing feuds that were not to be overlooked. When the real battle was staged the director suddenly found that the realism was not all due to a zest for acting on the part of his soldiers.

Half a hundred men forgot directorial orders and with clubbed rifles they waded into their enemies.

WATER HIKERS CROSS BAY IN THREE HOURS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Three men walked across San Francisco bay on water skis in three hours without a mishap.

They were A. N. Sheldon, Ventura rancher; his brother, D. F. Sheldon, and Rev. W. W. Reilly, pastor of the Congregational church of Weaverville, Trinity county.

The trio of intrepid water pedestrians left the Peterson landing at 1:30 a. m. and reached the mouth of the Oakland estuary at 1:30.

Hundreds of persons gathered at the pier to see them off. A. N. Sheldon manipulated his set of skis alone. His brother and the Weaverville cleric strode across the bay in tandem.

The Peterson launch Phyllis, under Captain Andrew Seaburg, followed the hikers closely and stood ready to render any assistance necessary. Aboard the launch was the sister of the Sheldons, Mrs. J. Sheldon Gerry of Ventura, and Miss Lulu Blackwood of San Francisco.

A. N. Sheldon, who invented the pontoon skis in 1912, used a net ten feet long and fourteen inches wide. They were equipped beneath with fins which lay flat against the bottom of the pontoon as the foot was thrust forward, but which straightened out vertically upon completion of the step, so that the walker would not slip backward. Sheldon's brother and the minister used a set of skis fourteen feet long, which they propelled with concerted strides.

This was the second trip Sheldon has made across the bay. In 1921 he crossed over to Oakland in seven hours, but drifted with the tide for from where he had intended to land. With the perfection of the webs, however, he was able to gain better traction this year.

It was the first trip across the bay afoot for Reilly and D. F. Sheldon.

"Are you doing any praying?" someone shouted to the minister from a tug.

"Never thought about it," Reilly answered back jovially.

A. N. Sheldon intends to walk across the English channel shortly.

TUSTIN PASTOR IS HONOREE AT PARTY

TUSTIN, Oct. 29.—Nearly thirty friends and neighbors of Rev. William Snider, pastor of the Advent Christian church of this city, dropped in on him one evening recently for a surprise party.

The guests gathered at the church and proceeded quietly to the manse where the party was held. Each of the guests brought one pound of something. In some cases it was pie, the pastor's favorite dish, or walnuts, or cookies or many other good things both good to eat and to wear.

A silver purse was taken up by the women members of the W. H. and F. M. society with contributions from the men members of the party accepted which amounted to $32 and was presented in two equal parcels to the pastor and his wife.

The friends and neighbors also brought refreshments and entertainment in plenty. Several of the members favored the assembly with songs and readings. Harry L. Hanson sang several solos, accompanied by Mrs. Hanson at the piano. "King of the Forest of Mine" was the title of the first selection. A humorous reading entitled "The Cultured Daughter of a Plain Grocer" given by Mrs. J. H. Brown, elicited hearty applause and much laughter, after which Mr. Hanson sang "Out Where the West Begins."

Mrs. Harry L. Hanson concluded the entertainment for the evening with two piano solos, entitled "Valse Arabesque" and "Gondoliers Vieni."

Refreshments of pop corn, apples, sugared walnuts, and bananas were served at a late hour by the committee in charge of the party.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. Elton and daughter, Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. George Spicer and daughter, Ida, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greenwood, Mr. E. O. Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hanson and son, Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hanson, Clare Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shat-t, Mrs. Alice Fewell, Mrs. C. Squires, Mrs. Grace Squires, Mrs. Dresser, Rev. and Mrs. William Snider, and daughter, Marlan, and Mr. Greenwood of Minnesota.

Sewer Pipes Will Prevent Cutting of Beach Pavement

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—Work is expected to commence on the laying of dead end sewer pipes and container pipes across Ocean avenue so that in the future it will not be necessary to tear up the pavement should any commodity be needed along the pike or ocean front.

The pipes are being installed by the city engineering department, and are the suggestion of City Engineer Louis F. Gates. Mr. Gates brought the matter up at a recent council meeting and it was decided to install the pipes at various places along the ocean front.

The pipes are being placed across the street at the corners of Eighth, Thirteenth, Seventeenth and Twenty-third streets. They are approximately five blocks apart and should take care of all the development along the coast for some time to come, it is thought.

The container pipes are big enough to accommodate water, gas and electricity pipes and wires of large size. Work has been continuing on the repairing of Walnut street between Third and Fifth street. The road in front of the post office is now in fine condition. Mr. Gates stated that extensive work will soon be started in several sections of the city. The huge steam roller is to be put to work on nearly all of the streets rolling out the holes and packing the loose dirt.

San Jose Speeder Serving Jail Term

SAN JOSE, Oct. 29.—Harry Kellerman, son of David Kellerman, wealthy Evergreen vineyardist, is serving a thirty-day sentence in the county jail for violation of parole following his arrest October 16, 1932, for speeding. When he was tried on the charge January 8, he was placed on parole for a year. On August 16 he was again arrested for violation of the speed laws, but failed to appear for trial. Young Kellerman also faces another sentence for violating city speed laws.

until his final note is uttered, and then deliberately, and usually to the accompaniment of an uncomfortable sense on the part of the audience, of something lacking, strides to the wings. It requires the amateur but two or three seconds to reach the wings, but in the matter of accelerating a performance, seconds are priceless.

Another method of accomplishing speed is not to wait for the stage to be cleared entirely before the opening bars of the ensuing number are played.

"In a professional production, a new thing is under way before an old is barely finished. Everything possible is done to keep the audience interested."

Other Time Savers.

"There is, for instance, no deadly wait between the overture and the rise of the curtain. In fact, in many instances the 'house lights' are put out and the curtain rises while the overture blends into the opening bars of the opera itself. Also, a professional soloist never waits several seconds to be certain that his audience is actually demanding an encore. The very moment that he may take it for granted that at least some in the audience desire an encore he is back on the stage again. Furthermore, he does not repeat, for an encore, his entire song, chorus and all. Instead, he sings the chorus, and retreats to the wings as he sings its last notes. 'Always keep them guessing, and don't give them too much of any one thing' would be a good motto for a producer."

"In the forthcoming production of 'Robin Hood' everything possible will be done to prevent a slow performance. Because of the rapidity with which principals and chorus are mastering the details, I am able to devote much more time than usual to the task of getting my people on and off stage. In short, I am having more than ordinary success in co-ordinating the work of the principals and the chorus."

LIFE SAVED BY TRIP TO SWIM BEFORE QUAKE

for the International Electric company, wrote from the Japanese city.

Elliott arrived in Japan three days before the earthquake.

Saturday morning was a hot, stuffy day and a few minutes before 12 o'clock Elliott left with two other employees of the Yokohama office for a swim.

Elliott wrote: "We left the office in an automobile. It was while driving that I noticed the car seemed to be acting queerly as though going over a very rough road, plunging violently from side to side and up and down."

"We were then passing through a street lined at both sides with Japanese houses, which began falling on both sides like poker chips piled too high. Many of the houses falling across the street along with the poles and wires made passing in a car impossible. We then left the car and found it hard getting along on foot, on account of obstructions and large cracks in the earth."

"The scenes on all sides were the most horrible I had ever seen. The houses were all leveled as though a steam roller had passed over them. Japanese were crying on all sides and crawling out of the ruins with blood streaming from cuts. Fires were breaking out in many places."

"The first quake which gave one the sensation of being whirled about in a very small circle with a buzzing whirling noise, probably due to a high wind, was followed at short intervals by quakes of lesser violence. The air was now filled with dust and smoke, so the sun looked red. We were in Hommoku. Our desire was to get on the high section of Yokohama, where a majority of the foreign population reside, and home to see how our families were."

Turned Back By Fire
"It was our thought that we would find the European houses had stood the shock which had leveled the Japanese houses. But to our amazement we found the houses at the bluff had gone at the same time. We heard calls for help on all sides. We were forced to make detours on account of houses being down across the roads and on account of fires which made passing impossible or dangerous."

"Finally we came upon what had been Temple Court hotel, where Mrs. Elliott and I were living. We did not know where we were until we reached this point, as there were no landmarks which could be recognized. It was now after 1 o'clock and the building was flat and in flames. I knew Mrs. Elliott was in her room at the time of the quake as I was to meet her there. It was impossible to conceive how one could get out of a room on the second floor of such a building. On account of the fires all about, it was thought advisable to get to the open country and we went in the direction of the race track and golf course. The smaller quakes were being felt at quite regular intervals. On all sides were groups of people—Japanese and foreigners, with dead and dying people on stretchers. All seemed to feel safer in the open."

Wife Freed Self
"I then left the party with me and returned to the vicinity of Temple Court to look for Mrs. Elliott but found no trace of her. At about dark I returned and found she was near where I had left the party. I learned she had gone down with the wreckage of the building, but in some way had managed to extricate herself without assistance and had been taken to this place by other Americans."

TELLS HOW NEW FIRE SYSTEM FUNCTIONS

the fire is located, Luxembourgier said.

Co-Operation Shown
Evidencing the interest Taylor's and the Rankin Dry Goods company have shown in protecting their properties from fire loss, the fire chief said that each firm is installing an automatic system by which an alarm will be given in the event of a fire either during the day or night. Located at each place, and at some easily accessible point, will be an indicator to disclose to firemen the exact location of a fire on either of the properties.

"With the two new stations and the modern fire alarm system, Santa Ana will be as well equipped for fire protection as any city of its size in the United States," declared Luxembourgier. "Fire losses in Santa Ana have been nominal and I believe that with our new plant we will be able to maintain even a better record than that of the past."

SERIOUS BLADDER TROUBLE
"Could not stand nor sit and was forced to cry out from intense pain," writes Henry Williams, Tarkio, Montana. "The doctors said I had inflammation of the bladder and an operation was necessary. Tried Foley Kidney Pills and improved at once. Told all my friends about Foley Kidney Pills as it will save many from suffering and perhaps, as in my case, a dangerous operation." Bladder and kidney trouble demand prompt treatment. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

for twenty-five or more years, it was added.

Snag Encountered.
When this condition was discovered, Knox discussed with property owners on the south side of the street the matter of deeding the necessary frontage to the street to make the paving full width on the south side, as far west as the Pacific Electric crossing.

Frank Musselman, Hirschel Johnson and the Whitson Lumber Co. are the owners of property necessary to complete the full width on the south side, property intervening between that owned by this group and the railroad crossing having been dedicated to the city through the platting of subdivisions, it was shown.

"Securing the promise of the three owners that they would deed the ground, we went ahead with our proceedings, and when they were nearly finished the Whitson Lumber company gave notice that if the city wanted its property it would have to pay for it," said Knox.

Error in Proceedings.
Proceedings and plans and specifications had been prepared for the full width paving on the south side, and notice from the lumber company made it necessary to revise the proceedings and the plans, according to Knox.

Knox said that since abandonment of the proceedings, the Whitson Lumber company has offered the city a deed, Musselman has deeded his property, but Johnson has not, Knox added.

The most recent delay was occasioned by an error in the proceedings, the error being an incorrect description of a portion of the street to be improved, it was stated.

States Steel company, and were given a substantial feed, the first in forty-eight hours, Monday morning the President Jefferson was in the harbor and we went to her expecting to get to Seattle. However, after boarding we found that they were returning to Kobe to take supplies to replace those destroyed in Yokohama and also to discharge such refugees as could not be carried to the United States. We arrived in Kobe about noon September 4.

"We know Yokohama is totally destroyed and it is doubtful if foreigners will ever live there again, as nothing worth while remains. Tokyo, while not as completely destroyed, is not fit for foreigners and will not be for months. Some of the larger, more modern reinforced concrete buildings were not destroyed."

Huntington Beach News

"NECKING" NOT POPULAR WITH BEACH FOLKS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 27.—"Mugging" and "necking" as it is sometimes called and otherwise is called "spooning" is sadly lacking in Huntington Beach, according to statements secured from leading men and women of the town.

Teacher Condemns It
All of them agree, however, with Mrs. Hazelton of the local high school, who said: "It is demoralizing to say the least, to flaunt the sacredness of love in a manner as to many of the younger people of today. Love should, to my mind, be regarded in a more sacred and holy light than it seems to be. I am thankful that there are not many, if any, of the so-called 'flappers' and 'shiksies' here in the Huntington Beach schools."

Opinion among most of the townspeople indicated to the so-called "public mugging" and "mush" is very seldom seen. William Cameron, secretary of the local Oil Workers union, said: "Spoonings is all right to a certain extent, but it should be curbed before it gets to slobbering."

He explained that a fellow should be allowed to put his arm around his girl friend in the show if she did not object, but drew the line at public kissing and other demonstrations.

"Kissing in picture shows and on the streets is 'mush' and should be strictly prohibited," Mr. Cameron declared.

Officers of the town report that they have not had much trouble with the "shiksies" and "flappers." Most of those who like to spoon either wait until night or else travel far down the beach in quest of seclusion, it is said.

"Dance hall ordinances and other protective measures have been passed in Huntington Beach, and are enforced whenever we get the chance," declared Chief of Police Tinsley. He added further that no one has ever been arrested in the city for that offense.

"We have decent and upright, clean people in Huntington Beach," he said.

HID SILVERWARE, LOSES IT IN FIRE

TUSTIN, Oct. 29.—Does it pay to hide one's silverware where the burglars can't find it? That is the question Mrs. L. J. Prescott of this city is asking herself today following a fire which nearly completely destroyed her fine two story home and other buildings along the premises on Newport road late Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott, who were married about a month ago, were in Los Angeles visiting with Mrs. Prescott's aunt, who has been very sick for some time.

The blaze is said to have started in the chicken coop at the rear of the residence, and to have eaten its way through a woodshed, a garage and into the house. When first noticed by L. Rusler of the Sharpless ranch the garage and woodshed had just collapsed. A row of eucalyptus trees beside the house and garage added greatly to the danger of the fire spreading.

Neighbors and firemen carried out what they thought was everything but Mrs. Prescott's wedding presents, her best silver and a considerable amount of money which she had hidden in the linen closet upstairs, where no one had thought to look, were totally destroyed by the fire.

The Santa Ana fire department responded to an assistance call and prevented more damage being done. Their firemen, with the

MAKE PROGRESS ON BUILDING OF CABIN

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—Saturday saw many members of the Lions club and of the Carpenters' union getting in some good work on the Boy Scout cabin, which has been in the course of construction for some time.

Members of the Lions club voted at their last meeting to roll the logs for the cabin to the carpenters. The carpenters recently built the building several logs high, and Saturday several more logs were added to each side of the building.

When it is completed the Boy Scouts plan to have it made into a fine clubroom and meeting place. The building is situated in the old Lake park. The Boy Scouts will hold a three-day camp at the park next Friday, Saturday and Sunday morning.

Each of the older Scouts will have under his care one of the Junior Scouts to teach something of the ways of the Scout. A program has been prepared by Scoutmaster C. E. Morris, including the Saturday evening program which will be a reproduction of the camp fires of Camp Rokill.

Disposition And Sunday Roast Are Ruined In Blaze

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—One roast and one cook's disposition were ruined in a fire which broke out here Saturday afternoon about 3 p. m.

C. D. Cannon of this city saw smoke pouring from one of the windows of a house on the corner of Ninth and Magnolia streets and immediately rushed to the fire station in his car as he had no telephone.

The fire department departed for the scene of the blaze with all haste. Mr. Cannon endeavored to follow but collided with a Ford. No damage was done, other than to wreck the cars slightly.

Meanwhile the fire department had arrived at the fire. Knocking at the door and receiving no answer they decided that no one was at home and so entered accordingly.

Rushing through the house to find the source of the flames they came upon the smoldering remains of the Sunday roast which had been left on the fire. Turning out the fire and "chasing" out the smoke the fire department returned to their quarters. A telephone call later in the evening revealed the cook's disposition.

FISHING VESSELS ARE DUE OFFSHORE

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—People of Huntington Beach are beginning to look for the fleet of fishing vessels which every fall puts in an appearance off the western coast of the town.

It is said that practically the entire San Pedro fishing fleet lays off the local coast during the rainy season, evidently fishing for sardines.

Fishing off the local pier has been poor of late, with night fishing claimed to have an edge of the better of it. Several fine mackerel were caught early yesterday morning, but the fishermen's deep refused to take the perfume hook the remainder of the day.

MEET MAY AIR ROAD PROJECT OF $1,000,000

A discussion of the suggested construction of a county boulevard from the north end of the county to Newport harbor will be a feature of discussion at the Associated Chambers of Commerce meeting at Garden Grove Wednesday night, according to information received here from Anaheim today.

William Schumacher, supervisor from the north end, is credited with being the "father" of the idea of the county boulevard. Schumacher was quoted recently as stating that if the county is to vote $1,000,000 for harbor improvement, a road direct from the north to the harbor should be built.

He was said to have added that the north end holds the whip hand in the matter of the harbor bonds—that solid opposition of the north, in combination with those from other sections who would naturally oppose another issue, could defeat the proposed issue of $1,000,000.

It was understood that rough estimates of the probable cost of such a boulevard indicated a cost of $1,000,000.

It was said that Harry Whitaker, postmaster at Anaheim, had procured from the county engineer's office a blueprint of the proposed boulevard.

The straight-line location, he was quoted as saying, would place the new avenue about one mile east of Garden Grove and half a mile west of the west city limits of Santa Ana. Approximately twenty miles of road would have to be built, it was stated at Anaheim.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 23.—Bobbed hair has halted the initiation of freshmen girls at the Carnegie Institute of Technology here. In past years the chief hazing custom has been to compel first-year girls to wear their hair in plaits and in other quaint ways, with ribbons predominating.

BEANPICKERS RALLY TO DEFEAT OIL MEN

Two Runs In Eighth Frame Give Trickey's Outfit Mound Duel Victory

An eight inning rally that netted a brace of tallies gave Manager Arthur Trickey's Irvine Beanpickers a 3 to 1 victory over the Associated Oil company of Los Angeles at Irvine yesterday afternoon after a sensational hurling duel between Fred "Dutch" Hinrichs and Ed Auerkamp, former Los Angeles coast league mound man. The Associated Oils substituted for the Hammond Lumber company.

The Associated broke the scoring ice in the fifth frame when Arnt came around on Auerkamp's triple. Irvine tied it up in the sixth and went out in the eighth. "Bab" Arambel, lead-off man for the Beanpickers, garnered a pair of socks out of three trips to the rubber. Hinrichs also collected a brace of blows. Haney, Ralph Mitchell, Johnny Arambel, Dallas and Ehrig were the other Irvineites to swat.

Manager Trickey announced the Cleary Athletic club (Barry's Classy Hats) team would furnish the fireworks for his aggregation next Sunday.

Eddie Doolis, vs. Eddie Spurley, 124 pounds.

Johnny Adams, junior lightweight champion of the Pacific Coast, meets one of the toughest boys in the division at the Orana arena Wednesday night when he comes out of his corner for four rounds with Sailor Walters. Johnny, one of the most popular performers in these parts, will have to be at his best to hold his own with the little gob.

Walters' last start was at Seattle where he defeated Eddie Moy in six rounds. He has twice outpointed Sailor Kramer, once defeated Frankie McCann and once lost to him. He beat the hard-hitting Kid Moha but dropped a close verdict to Bud Riley.

Adams last Tuesday night fought a spectacular draw with "Wildcat Willie" O'Brien in the semi-final bout at Vernon. Tony Ross and Smiling Parker, a pair who went to a great draw at Orana two weeks ago, have been rematched for the semi-final engagement.

Sport Flashes

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Finish-

The Nut Cracker

by Joe Williams

Zev made a joke of the international race, but Papyrus, being a Briton, was naturally slow to get it.

"Papyrus finished foaming at the mouth" . . . How else would you expect a beer-drinking horse to finish?

Perhaps Papyrus might have done better in a steeplechase. . . . Being used to hops as he is.

The report that Joe Beckett trained the English horse, pleased.

The straight-line location, he was quoted as saying, would place the new avenue about one mile east of Garden Grove and half a mile west of the west city limits of Santa Ana. Approximately twenty miles of road would have to be built, it was stated at Anaheim.

It was a signal victory for prohibition. . . . You might say the horse's neck got the horse laugh.

Well, the English horse was in the lead once and that's more than you ever get to say of an English heavyweight.

There's nothing left for Zev to do but to sign up for a vaudeville

Unfortunately young Williams already has a broken neck—broke it while scrimmaging against the scrubs.

But he still has hopes of playing football this season with the Yellow Jackets' first squad, thanks to a seat of hard harness made especially for the player.

SANTA ANA ELEVEN UNCORKS POWERFUL AIR ATTACK IN DEFEATING POETS, 32-0

Accurate Forward Passing Results In Three Touchdowns For Ed Covington's Cohorts; Spencer Starts First Big Game, Proves Star; San Diego Next

Very much back in the running for Tri-County league championship honors following its decisive and spectacular 32 to 0 victory over the Whittier high school eleven here last Saturday, Coach Ed Covington's Santa Ana high school team this afternoon began work for its next and perhaps hardest game of the year, that with San Diego in the Southland city next Saturday.

Coach Ed Covington's men outclassed the Poets in every department of play and, in so doing, offered one of the most beautiful forward passing attacks ever seen on the local gridiron. Virtually every pass that the local men attempted was completed for a substantial advance.

At the same time the Santa Ana team was able to smash the Whittier line wide open on line bucks, and run its ends ragged. Almost every play known to the game was used by Covington's cohorts to advantage.

Makes Poly Strong
Figured on paper the Poly showing against the Whittier eleven made them better than either San Diego or Pasadena whom they meet in the next two weeks. Pasadena defeated Whittier, 28 to 7. San Diego and Pasadena battled to a 0 to 0 tie.

Oscar Spencer, the Poly track star, who started his first big game as a regular, was one of the outstanding stars of the melee with the Quakers. The speed boy, situated at halfback, got away twice to touchdowns and always was able to dart off tackle for huge gains.

"Barney" Le Bard, playing his first game at fullback, was not far behind Spencer in sharing the glory. Le Bard time and again pierced the center of the Quaker line for gains from five to fifteen yards and his work on defense was faultless.

Uses Second Stringers
Santa Ana scored twice in the first half, once in the first period and once in the second quarter. Covington, ordered his second stringers into battle at the beginning of the third period. These young men pounded the Quaker line to pieces but, down on the five or ten yard line, they invariably fumbled.

The varsity returned to the melee at the opening of the last quarter and with a greatly diversified attack, ran over a trio of touchdowns before the affair came to a close.

"Greek" Williams was responsible for Santa Ana's initial touchdown. After taking the ball from its own 20 yard line to the Poet's 28-yard mark, Santa Ana was held and found itself up against the "fourth down and ten to go" obstacle. Bill Luck then hurled a beautiful forward pass to Williams and the "Greek" raced over the goal line with half the Whittier team hanging to his legs. Williams failed to kick goal.

Spencer Gets Away
Near the close of the second quarter Spencer, running at full speed, caught a short pass from Williams and sped around end for Luck kicked goal.

Williams made a circus catch for Poly's third score. With nine yards to go on fourth down, the oval resting on the Whittier 24 yard line, Le Bard threw a pass to the local quarterback. The ball was high but Williams leaped into the air in front of two Poet backfield men and was off for a score. Luck failed to convert.

Spencer's twisting, dodging dash of 25 yards through the entire Whittier team, accounted for the fourth touchdown. Williams failed to kick goal.

The lineup:
Santa Ana . . . R.E.L. . . . Tweddy
Natland . . . R.E.L. . . . Partridge
Dawson . . . C . . . Horton
Townsend . . . L.G.R. . . . Johnson
Decker . . . L.T.R. . . . Tedrick

Such a depot would then jointly serve the S. P. and the P. E. railroads, with a paved highway on each side. Efforts are still being made to bring this about. In the meantime the Southern Pacific has not made any specific advance toward removing the grade.

Should the board of trustees tonight decide to remove their portion of the grade, it would leave the railroad in a sorry predicament, because it would not have access to its depot on the pier and would be cut off from its water supply for its engines.

It is believed that the action of the city dads would hasten the plans of the railroad in solving some of the difficulties in removing a blot on the landscape.

THE JURY SYSTEM TODAY

It was more than fifty years ago that Mark Twain, in "Roughing It," declared the jury system to be "the most ingenious and infallible agency for defeating justice that human wisdom could contrive."

While the jury system since Mark Twain's day has been improved in many states, it is still a very lame institution. The improvements that have been made have been toward getting rid of technicalities in the examination of jurors, but the selection of the jury far too often is more or less of a legal farce, with the likelihood always being very strong that the majority of the jurors are chosen either because they do not read newspapers or because they do not have strong opinions. That is, the fact that they have read nothing of the case or, if they have read or heard about it, have no opinions, renders them more acceptable to both prosecution and defense. But in justice to the bar it should be noted that lawyers are becoming more conscientious in the matter of exercising the privilege of peremptory challenge.

Looking back over the history of the courts in Orange county, we find that a large majority of those who have been brought to trial have been convicted. It has been the policy of our district attorneys, as a rule, to refuse to sanction warrants in actions in which there appeared to be no chance for conviction, excepting in certain kinds of cases in which the ends of justice seem to demand prosecution, even though the chance of conviction is slight.

Failure to reach a conclusion in a trial is not always the fault of the jury or of the district attorney. Our laws are so framed as to give the defendant the benefit of every phase of the trial, not only in the selection of the jury, but in the presentation of the evidence. A prosecutor always works under a handicap. The defendant is presumed to be innocent, and there is thrown about him a legal fence. During the last legislature some efforts were made to get rid of some of these handicaps, but the efforts in the main were not successful. Barriers erected by tradition give way slowly. The fact, however, that the effort was made indicates a movement in the right direction. We can hope for betterments.

The main fault with the jury system has always been and still is that the verdict must be rendered unanimously by twelve jurors who are not trained for the responsibilities placed upon them. They are called in this state for a term of six months. By the time they become familiar with their duties and are in a position to render uniformly satisfactory service they are dismissed and another set of talesmen is called. The time may come when we will leave the verdict in criminal cases in the hands of judges or in the hands of trained jurors. At present we seem to be a long way from having a system that is free from mistrials; too often justice is defeated.

In this county, failure to convict or acquit cannot be said to be due to the lack of intelligence on the part of our jury panels, for the lists are made up from the best and most intelligent citizens and property owners of the county. The fault is more often with the system than with the individuals who are called to the service. The requirement of a verdict of twelve is going beyond reason. A vote of ten out of twelve ought to be sufficient in any state, excepting, perhaps, when a life is at stake. Rules of evidence ought to be such that everything having anything to do with the case could be laid before a jury. As it is, in the anxiety of the law to protect the accused, oftentimes a district attorney must submit the case without having been able to present some of his most pertinent points.

Just as a study of the jury system, as Mark Twain knew it in Nevada half a century and more ago, we are publishing on this page a portion of a chapter from his "Roughing It". He has painted the system at its blackest. True, the system today is lighter in color, but it is a long way from being permeated with the radiance of day.

ACT NOW TO GET PARKS

Small neighborhood parks—the more, the better! A large city park, to be sure!

Representatives of civic organizations meeting with the City Planning commission are quoted in the news columns of The Register as favoring immediate action toward securing small neighborhood parks in various parts of the city. Equal consideration is given to the advisability of buying larger tracts for park use.

It is our sincere hope that the city trustees will find no reason for delaying action looking to carrying out whatever suggestions the joint park committee may have to present.

The voters of Santa Ana have never had an opportunity to do anything worth while in relation to the acquisition of parks. Throughout the city's history park proposals have been side-tracked. Other needs seemed more pressing. The time when good park sites could be had for a few hundred dollars is long past. It will take more than a few thousands of dollars now to buy a piece of park property, but if we don't buy now, we, some day, will be paying a few hundreds of thousands for it.

We know, of course, that there are but two ways in which Santa Ana can get parks—by gift, by purchase. No one could present the city with a memorial to his own life or to the life of a loved one that would be so widely appreciated by Santa Anans of today and by Santa Anans down through the decades and the centuries to come as a park would be.

Acquisition by purchase, of course, means a bond issue; the city has not enough money available out of its ordinary sources of revenue to finance the purchase of even a small acreage. We feel certain, however, that any reasonable proposition for parks presented by the joint park committee will be ratified decisively by the taxpayer-voters of the city.

And let there be no delay!

PREPARE FOR ARMISTICE DAY

There is every reason to believe that this year's celebration of Armistice Day at Orange will be one of the biggest celebrations ever held in the county. The spirit and enterprise with which the officers of the American Legion post of Orange, together with other citizens of that live, wide awake city, took hold of the project months ago left no question concerning the success of the celebration.

The decision of the American Legion council of the county to have the celebration at various cities of the county, turn about, long ago brought unity of purpose and complete harmony of action among the posts of the county. Whenever a post is designated to handle an Armistice Day affair, it has the support of every other post in the county.

And every community that has had the opportunity to help in the celebration has responded gladly to the call of its post. This year, with the post at Orange in charge, the residents of Orange have entered into arrangements for the celebration with commendable co-operation. Promise is given that Armistice Day this year will set a high mark among Armistice Day celebrations in this county.

Why Coolidge Gains Votes

November Sunset

President Coolidge was a reticent Yankee until he became President, a Yankee of the kind that will tell you where a road goes if you ask him, but who will not volunteer the information that it is closed for repairs. Washington correspondents from beyond the Missouri have found him to be a breezy Westerner in those presidential conferences which have come to be a part of the unwritten constitution. He has amazed them by the full and frank manner in which he submits to the group interviews which are never printed in quotation marks, but appear in the papers as the emanations of "a White House spokesman," or "the highest authority at the White House," etc. But time may caution him to revert to reticence. When a man who never had enough money to afford an automobile, whose income was $3000 to $6000 a year in private life, who lived in a thirty-three-dollar-a-month-house, whose wife did her own housework, becomes President, it is impossible for him to realize all at once that he has a presidential as well as an individual personality. But it is just that plain citizen stuff which has stumped all the politicians who figured on an open race for the presidency in 1924. Thirteen million car owners stand patently ready to keep Mr. Coolidge in automobiles for four years more. And every man who pays more than $33 a month for house rent would elevate himself in his own esteem and gratify his inferiority complex by casting his vote for the humbler renter—Theodore Knappen in November SUNSET.

Harness the Colorado

Pasadena Star-News.

The days of running wanton, on the part of the Colorado River, are about to end. Man has been at the mercy of this wilful stream. But the Colorado is to be put at the mercy of man. It is to be tamed and controlled. Its vast stores of flood waters are to be turned from a curse into a blessing. Power for railroads and factories innumerable and lights for cities, will be generated. Floods no more will harass the rancher or endanger cities and towns. And millions of acres of potentially fertile soil will be reclaimed. Furthermore, the city of Los Angeles has ambitious plans to carry part of the impounded waters across the desert and through mountain passes down to this Southland to amplify this section's reserve supply of the vital fluid, for domestic uses and for irrigation and factory needs.

God must have intended that man should subdue these mighty natural forces and make them serve his needs. They lie lavishly in all this region. Through courage, and enterprise, and resourcefulness, man is enabled to control elements and forces which, uncontrolled, are banal and destructive.

Allies' Debts to This Country

San Francisco Chronicle.

Various European, and some other nations, owe the United States substantial sums evidenced largely by I. O. U's signed and bearing interest. They are all due upon presentation. They have not been presented out of friendly consideration for the well-known condition of extreme hardship of the signers.

But our Government has once courteously requested our debtors to come to our office, check up and settle the amounts due, put them into more negotiable form and determine on the least satisfactory due dates. Our British neighbors have fixed up their accounts, and in fifty or sixty years will not be owing us any money.

One or two other countries have sent over agents, who were very polite and also very non-committal. No definite statements or suggestions were forthcoming. It is said that our debt funding commission is about to send a follow-up letter, which, as many of us know, is usually less polite and more explicit than the first number of the series.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M. D.

WHY TAKE A CHANCE? I heard an argument between two physicians one day, one a general practitioner and the other a lung specialist, that is worth recording. It was a case of a tubercular suspect, a young married man with a responsible position.

The physical examination revealed symptoms that would point to tuberculosis, such as a constant cough, an occasional night sweat, a very slight rise in temperature, and a tired out feeling.

On the other hand the man had a good appetite, was losing very little weight if any, and was at work every day. No germ could be located.

The physician and the specialist were old friends. The diagnosis of the specialist was that it was early tuberculosis. The diagnosis of the practitioner was that the man was a bit run down and needed just a tonic and a rest outdoors.

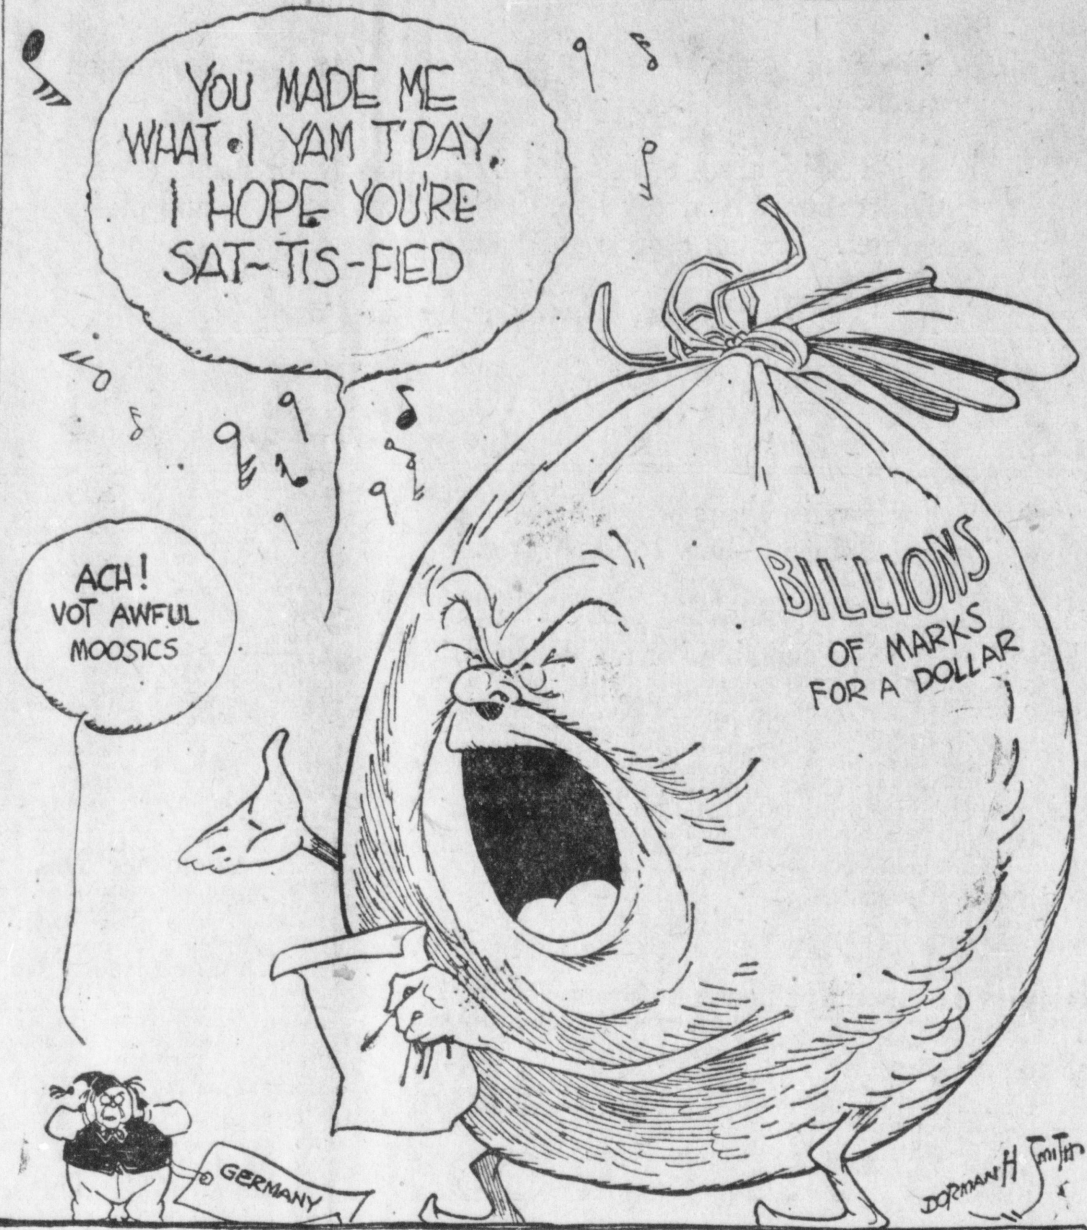

The specialist easily clinched the matter in this way. "If I'm right and he has tuberculosis we've got him in good time, and he'll be a sure cure. Even if I'm wrong what about my treatment? Will it be good for him or not?"

The general practitioner was silent for a minute and then said: "You're right. I have no right to make him take a chance."

The young man went to a well known sanitarium for nearly a year, and came back strong and well. That was nearly ten years ago and there has been no recurrence of his cough, temperature, night sweats, or "tired out feeling."

"What's the lesson? That every case of suspected tuberculosis should be treated as if it were really tuberculosis. Even if the patient cannot or will not go to a sanitarium, the usual treatment for tuberculosis should be instituted. It is simple enough—Fresh air all the time, good nourishing food, rest most of the time, and then light exercise outdoors as strength returns. In any case treat the suspect as a real case, and never 'take a chance' in the matter."

Facing the Music

Half-A-Mind

By Helen Gregg Green, National Kindergarten Association

A little school marm was speaking to the mother of a pupil about her son's poor work in school.

"Well," sighed the mother, "I really don't know what to do. I've told Ronald he'll have to stay away from the movies this week and study, and I've half a mind to stick to it."

Half a mind! Therein lies the trouble with many mothers. When you're a half-a-mind mother, your children soon find it out and when they discover the fact, how your discipline will suffer!

I recently overheard two boys talking.

"Come on, let's go in swimming," James coaxed.

Eddie grinned but shook his head. "Can't. Sorry! But Mom said, 'Not today.'"

"Aw, shucks, Eddie, come on! Your mother'll forget what she said. Mine usually does. Half the time she doesn't mean it."

"No my mother won't," Eddie answered firmly. "She doesn't lay down the law very often, but believe me, when she does, she means it!"

"Oh, well, I'm going. My mother told me not to. Said she would spank me if I did, but she won't. At least," hesitatingly, "I don't think she will. Sometimes she means what she says, and sometimes she doesn't. And off James shuffled."

What a contrast between the mothers of these two boys, and how much better the effect of firmness!

I don't believe in nagging children; and I don't believe in giving perfunctory orders and rebukes every few minutes. But I most firmly do believe in meaning what you say, and having a good mind of your own.

Occasionally you will change your mind about something. In that case it is wise to explain to your boy or girl just why you did so.

Your children will respect you more, and you will be a more successful parent if you are not the vacillating, half-a-mind type. And the matter of discipline will be much easier and pleasanter, and everybody will be happier.

Worth While Verse

MY TREE

A living sentinel that never moves about,
That has no lips to voice its sorrow, nor can shout—
Emotion to our list'ning ears, but gracefully
In motioning, it voices thoughts for us to see.

Its quivering boughs, as stirred by hands of friend or foe,
Are telling tales to us whenever the breezes blow.
And in its gentle way, it tells at misty morn
Its part in Nature's beauty, since it first was born.

Then tenderly it swings the song birds to and fro
As to its sheltered arms, the tiny creatures go.
And as though mothering, when baby Robins cry,
I seem to hear its patting leaves in lullaby.

In wild appeal, uplifted arms are raised in vain
And bow in dumb submission, 'neath the pouring rain.
So laughing, crying, loving, dying—trees must go Upon life's way and take just what the breezes blow.

—Hazel J. Fristad.

EASILY WORKED OUT.

A school boy at lunch time entered a grocery store and said to the clerk:

"Take this order: Ten pounds sugar at 6 cents, 11 pounds of coffee at 25 cents, 8 pounds of tea at 30 cents. Add that up. How much is it?"

The clerk replied, "55.75."

"Are you sure?" asked the boy.

"Of course I am sure."

The boy thanked him and said: "That's my arithmetic lesson for tomorrow."—Judge.

Mark Twain on Jury System

From "Roughing It"

The men who murdered Virginia's (Virginia City, Nev.—Ed.) original twenty-six cemetery occupants were never punished. Why? Because Alfred the Great, when he invented trial by jury, and knew that he had admirably framed it to secure justice in his age of the world, was not aware that in the nineteenth century the condition of things would be so entirely changed, that unless he rose from the grave and altered the jury plan to meet the emergency, it would prove the most ingenious and infallible agency for defeating justice that human wisdom could contrive. For how could he imagine that we simpletons would go on using his jury plan after circumstances had stripped it of its usefulness, any more than he could imagine that we would go on using his candle-clock after we had invented chronometers? In his day news could not travel fast, and hence he could easily find a jury of honest, intelligent men who had not heard of the case they were called to try—but in our day of telegraphs and newspapers his plan compels us to swear in juries composed of fools and rascals, because the system rigidly excludes honest men and men of brains.

I remember one of those sorrowful farces, in Virginia, which we call a jury trial. A noted desperado killed Mr. B., a good citizen, in the most wanton and cold-blooded way. Of course the papers were full of it, and all men capable of reading read about it. And of course all men not deaf and dumb and idiotic talked about it. A jury list was made out, and Mr. B. L., a prominent banker and a valued citizen, was questioned precisely as he would have been questioned in any court in America: "Have you heard of this homicide?"

"Yes."

"Have you held conversations upon the subject?"

"Yes."

"Have you formed or expressed opinions about it?"

"Yes."

"Have you read the newspaper accounts of it?"

"Yes."

"We do not want you."

A minister, intelligent, esteemed, and greatly respected; a merchant of high character and known probity; a mining superintendent of intelligence and unblemished reputation; a quartz mill owner of excellent standing, were all questioned in the same way, and all set aside. Each said the public talk and the newspaper reports had not so biased his mind but that sworn testimony would overthrow his previously-formed opinions and enable him to render a verdict without prejudice and in accordance with the facts. But of course such men could not be trusted with the case. Ignoramuses alone could mete out unsullied justice.

When the peremptory challenges were all exhausted, a jury of twelve men was impaneled—a jury who swore they had neither heard, read, talked about, or expressed an opinion concerning a murder which the very cattle upon the subject?"

"Yes."
